PRINCESS MAQUINNA ARRIVES FROM SOUTH

The Princess Maquinna, Capt. John McLeod in command, arrived in Juneau last night making her second journey to Alaska. Beside Capt. McLeod, nearly the entire crew of the Princess May had berths aboard the ship that is replacing the Sophia temporarily while the latter is being overhauled. The Princess Maquinna brought the following passengers for Juneau: M. Fuller, G. VanDyck, Trevor Davis, Miss Cordella Davis, P. O'Brien, H. Smith, S. E. Hodge and wife, F. Miller, H. Haywood, G. Bernstein, and three second class.

SOCIAL UNION TO MEET.

Bridges, city; L. Schoenfeldt, Tenakee; J. B. Johnson, Bruce Shorts, W. B. Stratton, W. H. Bogle, D. L. Moir, A. M. Goodman, H. E. Shook, G. VanDyke, W. H. Landcaster, Seattle.

CHANGE NIGHT AT ORPHEUM.

The Orpheum theatre tonight will offer a complete change of program, opening with the special, two-reel, Lubin, dramatic feature, "The Power of Silence." This is an especially good Western ranch drama, of strong situations and deep interest.

"Poison Ivy," is a splendid Selig tramp comedy, showing funny results of contact with this pernicious plant. "The Clay Industry" is a good educational picture showing the use and manufacture of this product for commercial purposes.

"His Wife's Relations," a splendid Lubin comedy, will fill the bill for a first class show.

Save your coupons.

GRAND THEATRE.

The show tonight is an interesting program:

"Boss of the Ranch," Ammex Western drama.
"The Wood Nymph," a fishing story, and a little touch of love.
"Recognition," an American drama of domestic affairs.
"In a Garden," Thanhouser play, very pleasing.

White sheep give more wool than black sheep—there are more of them

REMINGTON stenographers do more of the world's work than other stenographers—there are more of them.
Nature only knows why there are more white sheep than black.
All the world knows why there are more Remington operators than others.
REMINGTON is the machine in which the most operators have confidence—and the machine which gives them the confidence to make good.

12,500,000 Remington letters mailed in the United States every business day in the year

Isn't that the answer to the question, "which machine?" for your office?

Throughout the world Remington is a synonym for typewriter efficiency. It is the voice of the business world.
