ALASKAN INDIANS AND CITIZENSHIP.

THE ultimate destiny of the Indians of Alaska is full American citizenship with its rights and manifold duties, including the right to vote and participate in all the affairs of government.

However, no real friend of the Indians should urge that the franchise be granted to them until they are ready to use it intelligently.

The welfare of both the white race and the Indians in Alaska demands that we should profit by the bitter experience of the South from the premature enfranchisement of a race unaccustomed to self-government.

Allen Weir, Washington's first Secretary of State, has contributed a last word to the discussion of the question as to the proper age at which to marry, a problem that is still holding the attention of many Eastern newspapers, preachers and sociologists.

NEW NATIONALISM GONE MAD.

MRS. EVA MORLEY MURPHY, who announces her candidacy for the Progressive nomination for Congress in Kansas, has adopted a platform for herself that should bring joy to New Nationalists.

All of these matters have heretofore been regarded as proper subjects for State control, and headway has been made in the regulation of each of them by the separate States.

The practicability of the workingmen's compensation law, for instance, under State control has been demonstrated.

In fact, it has been demonstrated in Alaska that workmen's compensation can be worked out even without a State-wide law.

Every town in the country—not an exception between Machias and Barrow—has a champion baseball team. There is not a doubt about it.

The Prince Rupert Empire says Whitehorse was named in honor of "Stroller" White, who got his name from the "languid way in which he starts on a stampede."

HOW FAIRBANKS RECEIVED GOOD NEWS

This is the Fairbanks News' description of the receipt of the news of the passage of the Alaska railroad bill by the people of the Tanana metropolis:

"Everybody is happy. The Alaska railroad bill passed the Senate this afternoon and all Fairbanks is celebrating, the whistles of the city having announced the glad tidings shortly after two o'clock this afternoon.

"Simultaneously with the blowing of the N. C. whistle, a fire alarm was turned in at the city hall and the boys of the fire department therefore had a run in celebration of the big event. However, the alarm proved to be a false one, as, when both rigs of the department reached the N. C. wood-yard, where the fire was supposed to be, all they found was a laborer piling wood and not dreaming of fires,

GLASSES FOR EVERY AGE are procurable here. For the youngster who is a little weak in vision, for the parents whose eyes need help, for the old folks whose sight begins to show the effect of advancing years.

I. J. SHARICK Jeweler and Optician to be seen talking over the passage of the bill and many are the congratulations and handshakes which are being passed among the business men and the citizens in general.

"Among those who are out with appropriate decorations is the Sourdough Express. One side of their light rig is covered by a painting representing the new Alaska railroad coming into the Fairbanks terminal station.

The Proper Time is Childhood

Many evil results come from a neglect of children's eyes at an early school age. When taken in time it is often unnecessary to wear glasses long.
