ALASKA GASTINEAU PAYS OUT LARGE SUM
Today is payday for the employees of the Alaska Gastineau Mining company for the month of March. All told $105,000 was disbursed among the employees in the Perseverance, Sheep creek and Salmon creek development divisions. Approximately 750 men were employed continuously during the month. April will make a much larger showing.

VAN ATTA MOVES INTO A NEW LOCATION
J. D. Van Atta has removed his barber shop from 304 Front street to 348 on the same street, where he will remain permanently. Mr. Van Atta is expecting his wife to arrive during the latter part of the present month, and he is preparing a residence.

JAXON'S RINK OPENS
Jaxon's rink will open Sunday for skating, afternoon and night. The management has arranged for first class pictures to be run during the week--four reels--changing Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. The admission will be 10c to children and 15c to adults, any seat. This is a department that will be appreciated by picture fans. When you see these pictures you will say they are the best, because they are run in every first class house in Seattle and Portland.
