Olive Oil and Olives

Down in Orville, California, some years ago a lady began making olive oil for distribution among her neighbors, it was so pure and delicate in taste that the whole country demanded it. It now has a reputation throughout the world. The only place in Douglas that this pure brand can be obtained is at the general store of P. H. FOX

INTERESTING PROGRAM AT LYRIC TONIGHT

DOUGLAS, April 10.—The following interesting program will be repeated at the Lyric tonight:

"The Coming of Sunbeam," a drama by the Solax Co.

The great state right feature in two reels, "The Paymaster's Son." Story of a young man's heroism and reward.

"A Cowboy Heir," an American comedy. One of those ridiculously funny comedies.

DOUGLAS NEWS NOTES

DOUGLAS, April 10.—The cantata "Everlasting Light," to be given by the singers of the Congregational church promises a rich treat. The event is to take place on the evening of the 17th, twenty-five voices constitute the chorus.

Yesterday the First Territorial Bank of Alaska was seven months old. Cashier A. E. Gurr reports that the business of the institution has been all that could be expected.

Capt. A. Bartello says that his pleasure boat, "City of Rome," is due for an overhauling and that he is soon going to take out all the supplies and renovate and repaint the interior, after which he will put her on the beach and thoroughly repaint the hull, thus getting the craft in readiness for the summer season of hunting, fishing and pleasure cruising.

A logging outfit, consisting of a donkey engine and accessories, was unloaded yesterday from the Quinalt, consigned to Anderson and Penglase. A barge received the shipment and it will be taken to Bear creek where logging operations are being conducted.

Sam Bornstein arrived on the Spokane this morning and secured vacant storeroom on Front street where he will open his samples for the inspection of the Douglas merchants.

Mamie Harper, the colored woman who took a shot at her husband a few days ago, has been bound over to appear at the next term of the district court. At the preliminary hearing in Juneau it was shown that she fired two shots, one at her husband and another at a bystander.

The Spokane arrived in Treadwell at 9:30 this morning and after discharging a light cargo for that port shifted to Douglas where she unloaded 25 tons and six passengers.

TREADWELL COMPANY STARTS BUILDING CONCRETE OFFICES

TREADWELL, April 10.—Surveyors this morning laid the stakes for a new, two-story, reinforced concrete office building, to be constructed next to the store and just off the present offices of General Manager R. A. Kinzie. The lower floor will be used by Mr. Kinzie and his secretary and office assistants, while the second story rooms are to be occupied by the survey force. The structure will be fireproof.

CHICKEN FANCIERS GATHER EGGS AND EXPERIENCE

TREADWELL, April 10.—Members of the chicken growers association of Treadwell are holding daily and nightly sessions in various parts of the city. Every process known to modern science from candling to incubating is being used to extract live chickens from cold and pulseless eggs. One absent-minded janitor of an incubator forgot to wind the thing up or to turn on the heat a few nights ago, but he insists that the next morning his chickens were flapping their wings in the shells to keep warm until the steam could be turned on, just like tenants in a modern flat.

The omelette order now has a membership of nine, with many eligibles on the waiting list. Those initiated are Mark Smith, Jim Daniels, Dan Campbell, David Brown, Mr. Mackie, Joe Robinson, Ed Crowe, Emmett Carroll and Monte Benson.

TREADWELL NOTES

TREADWELL, April 10.—At the firemen's meeting tonight it is presumed that considerable of the discussion will be given to baseball. The baseball fever is being intensified by the warm days and the community is becoming anxious to see Manager Ferris trot his colts out to meet all comers. After the fire meeting there will be four reels of pictures.

Ed. Beals and B. Coryell left on the Spokane today for the North. They expect to spend the summer in the Interior.

Alfred Gordon is going to take a position on the through freight running from mill 300 to elsewhere.

"Chub" Douglas went to work at the 300 mill yesterday.

W. E. Daniels, wife and little girl arrived in Treadwell today, where Mr. Daniels has accepted a position as stenographer for Supt. Kinzie, relieving Mr. E. P. Rotman who is going to Seattle. The Daniels family will make their home for the present in the San Souel apartments.

Ed. Atkinson, of Spoel river, arrived in the city this morning.

C. A. Von Godeen has taken a position with the Treadwell company and will remain here during the summer.

Mr. Von Godeen is a musician of excellent ability and has a rich tenor voice which will be heard at the cantata to be rendered on the 17th.

At the meeting of the band last night for practice, it was practically decided to give another concert soon. Another swimming carnival is being arranged to take place during the latter part of the month.

Galvanizing done by G. Roeno, Sans Souel Bldg., Douglas.

PERSONAL MENTION

C. A. Fox and Mrs. Fox returned to Juneau on the Alameda last night.

Matt Piles, well known commercial man, arrived in Juneau from the South on the Alameda.

Frank Lawson, the well known Fairbanks and Iditarod operator, passed through Juneau yesterday on his way to Fairbanks.

William Ferguson, well known commercial man, arrived from the South on the Alameda last night.

John Winter, of Sheep creek, is laid up with a sprained ankle, but will soon be out again.

Harry B. Averill, a newspaper man of North Yakima, Wash., is a passenger on the Alameda on his way to Fairbanks where he will have a position on the editorial staff of the Fairbanks News-Miner.

John McLaughlin, the popular manager of the Elks' club, who had been confined to his home for some time with an acute attack of rheumatism, has recovered and is again about town.

Charles E. Nyo, president of the Skagway Light and Water company, arrived in Juneau on the Alameda and after a brief visit left for his home on the Spokane.
