DOUGLAS CANDY KITCHEN REMOVING TO JUNEAU

DOUGLAS, April 22.—The stock and fixtures of the Douglas Candy Kitchen are being moved today on the Lone Fisherman for Juneau where a location has been secured under the Opera House, which will hereafter be the location of the business of Hill and Keist.

Everything is in readiness for the baseball dance tonight. A large crowd is expected from all the channel cities.

Mr. Brown announces that the skating rink will be open every Sunday afternoon and evening during the summer months.

BIG BLUE GROUSE FLIES THROUGH TRANSOM WINDOW

DOUGLAS, April 22.—A big blue grouse, one of the prettiest and largest of the species, came down from the hills this forenoon and crashed through one of the transom windows of the Northern Bar. It fluttered for a while and died within ten minutes. The impact of the bird shattered the glass and caused some excitement among the visitors in the place. The proprietors of the place will have the bird mounted by a taxidermist and keep it on exhibition.

TREADWELL NOTES

TREADWELL, April 22.—"Babe" Sample has been transferred from the machine shops to the position of conductor on the ore train running from the central hoist to mills 240 and 300.

John S. Duncan will leave on the Northwestern tonight for Nainimo and Vancouver for a visit of a few weeks.

with his relatives and friends. This will be the first trip out for Mr. Duncan in ten years.

The foundations for 2 more of the Ferris bungalows have been started; two of them now being nearly completed.

Debris from the old Treadwell hoist which was burned some months ago, has nearly all been removed, and the place is being cleaned up.

Thomas James went to work this morning on the ore train. Mr. James was formerly an engineer for the Treadwell company but has spent the past ten years in Ketchikan, Portland canal and other parts of Alaska and British Columbia where he has engaged in mining and prospecting. He is welcomed back to the Island by the old timers.

Firemen's meeting Friday night, four reels of pictures and a social time.

DOUGLAS NEWS NOTES

COMPLETE CHANGE, LYRIC Sweden and Denmark.

Douglas, April 22.—Six thousand feet of moving pictures and colored slides showing the grandeur of Sweden and Denmark tonight, showing the Scandinavians, their old homes and scenes of their childhood. A large crowd viewed the Norwegian scenes last night and pronounced them perfect.

In this trip all the National sports, industries and habits of the Scandinavian people will be shown with a glimpse of the midnight sun and the world's famous fjords. Pictures of all the quaint towns and villages will be shown on the screen and the show will be a veritable trip back to Sweden and Denmark.

To conclude with a humorous farce in moving picture. Admission 25 and 50 cents.
