CONGREGATIONAL LADIES WILL GIVE ANOTHER TEA
DOUGLAS, May 13.—The Ladies' League will enjoy another of their always delightful afternoon teas Thursday afternoon in the league rooms. All ladies are invited to attend.

TREADWELL NOTES.
TREADWELL, May 13.—Ben Learning, Jack Wilson and "Maude" the He! Haw! maid of all works, are busy these days scraping and leveling the athletic grounds for the ball players. Ben goes around the outfield with a pan of grass seed which he scatters to the winds, while Jack and Maude follow him with a 10-ton roller; at each alternate lap they grow tired and stop for a discussion of the Mexican situation. Ben is a Democrat, while Jack is a Bull Mooseer, Maude being a Suffragist. In the opinion of the fans who are compelled to listen to the discussion, Maude has the best of the argument. Mr. N. Wimmer of the cyanide plant has resigned and will accept a position in another part of Alaska. John Bissett is numbered among the sick and will take a vacation for a few weeks to regain his health. He is employed in the cyanide plant. C. J. Opperman of the survey crew, has gone to work in the cyanide department.

POLITICAL LEADERS ARE CONFERRING IN ENGLAND
LONDON, May 13.—At a meeting in Downing street yesterday Premier Herbert Henry Asquith, Minority Leader A. Bonar Law and Sir Edward Carson discussed the Irish situation with the idea in view of getting together. It is conceded that the possibility of civil war in Ulster is operating to detract from the standing of the British Empire before the world.
