COLORADO'S CRIME.

Those statutes proposed by the Governor of Colorado and about to be adopted by the Legislature are good, but their enforcement will be better. Had Colorado enforced the laws she now has most of the grievances of the strikers would have been automatically eliminated.

Goethals against free tolls? Is it possible that this man, in whom we had all taken such pride as a distinguished American, was digging that canal for Great Britain all the time that we were bestowing praise? Will Hearst and McLean dare say so? If not, shouldn't they retract some of the things they have said about Wilson and Bryan?

PLAYING WITH FIRE.

J. E. CHILBERG, Scott Bone and other Seattle business men have returned from Eastern trips where they associated with those of "Big Business," enthused with the prospect of defeating the Democratic party and the Wilson administration at the next elections.

In short, was "Big Business" simply playing possum? If this surmise is correct, some people are playing with fire. If a combination should be formed strong to unhorse the Wilson administration and the party that is devoting its efforts to eliminate class distinctions and re-establish equality before the law in this country those who accomplish it may live to regret their work.

Gen. Villa, be his faults what they may, is the one man in Mexico who seems to have the clearest ideas of what all the fuss south of the Rio Grande is about, and what the equities of the situation require.

It is always satisfactory to Alaska when the center of activity is transferred from the State, War or Navy Departments to the Interior Department. It is more than satisfactory when the transfer is from all three of the Departments at the same time.

Juneau's water front street won't down. The people will never be wholly satisfied until they have the thoroughfare.

The Ladies' Musical club and its large appreciative audience last night gave a complete demonstration that commercial and industrial development is not the only kind of development that interests the people here.

NOTED MINING MEN HERE. In a conversation the other day between Mr. Zenog Jemudyseng of Patagonia and Mr. James E. Barragar of the Postoffice Store, A. Ferte of the American Paint Co. said: "Although Mr. Rubie and myself never actively engaged in either gold or silver mining, we do understand Kalsomining as well as painting and paperhanging, and that wall paper sale with Pot-latch prices is still on. 'We hurry.'" 5-14-14.
