THREE GUESSERS TIE FOR SECOND PRIZE

Three guessers tied for second prize in the Alaskan Cafe navigation contest. The lucky men were A. R. Jones, of Seattle, a traveling salesman; J. C. Stanley, the local architect, and F. Terry.

The prize is $15 worth of meals. The guessing contest was decided upon the hour of the arrival of the Alaska, the first boat to sail from Whitehorse. She reached Dawson at 7:53 p. m. June 3. The three guessers named predicted June 3 at 8 o'clock as the date, and were, therefore, within one minute of the right time.

The Casca, which sailed from Whitehorse an hour and a half behind the Alaska boat her to that place by four minutes, arriving at 7:55. While the prize winning was based upon the arrival of the first boat to sail from Whitehorse, the result would have been the same if the Casca's time had been accepted.

Mrs. E. Fletcher was a close fourth, guessing 7:45 p. m.

GOVERNMENT OFFICES FOR GOLDSTEIN BLOCK

The offices of the Surveyor General, Territorial Secretary and the United States land office will be located in the Goldstein building as soon as it shall have been completed. Surveyor-General Charles E. Davidson, and Register C. B. Walker and Receiver Frank A. Boyle, of the land office, have concluded a lease with Chas. Goldstein for most of the office rooms that will be located on the top floor of his building. It is now planned to have the building finished early in September, if, indeed, it is not ready for occupancy by the first of the month.

The work on the building is progressing rapidly. The massive timbers that will support the structure and interior walls are being placed in position, and they testify to the substantial character of the work that is being done.

"LION AND MOUSE" ON SUNDAY NIGHT

On account of numerous requests Manager Arthur Fox has decided that his Royal Players will present the "Lion and the Mouse" Sunday night instead of Monday, reserving the "Girl of the Golden West" for Monday night.

Speaking of the place the Royal Players won in the hearts of Victoria theatre lovers in general and the reception given Miss Edythe Elliott in the "Lion and the Mouse" in particular, the Victoria Daily Times says:

"The Royal Players have won a place in the affections of the patrons of the Victoria theatre not realized until the ringing cheers which followed the climax of the third act of 'The Lion and the Mouse' last night were heard."

"There is no precedent in the theatrical history of Victoria for the magnificent demonstration following Miss Elliott's enunciation of the great speech with which Charles Glein brought to the most thrilling scene of his most powerful drama to a close. Such ovations in the past have been reserved for world famous musicians and music hall artists, and the spontaneity with which the audience accorded this distinction to the purely dramatic performance of Miss Elliott was an eloquent tribute to the simplicity and effectiveness with which she played the part."

"The personation of the unrelenting selfish old money king, John Burkett Rider," was hardly less telling, Charles E. Royal, under whose direction the company's productions are staged, interpreted the part in a convincing manner. He is a finished actor; his ability to sink his identity in the character portrayal being an invaluable asset in stock."

BRUNER WARNS AGAINST "WILDCATS"

Ed. C. Snyder, Washington correspondent of the Omaha Bee, and in charge of the publicity department of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, which has 267 American newspapers on its mailing list, at the suggestion of Senator Elwood Bruner, of Nome, has sent a warning to the people of the United States to be careful about investing in Alaska companies that have been organized on the strength of the publicity this Territory received in Washington last winter.

The article which is appearing in many papers is as follows:

"With the beginning of work on the Alaska railway, for which the general government has appropriated $35,000,000, all sorts of 'wild-cat' mining schemes will be unloaded upon the people of the United States, if they are not careful, according to a statement made by Elwood Bruner of Nome, Alaska, a Senator of the Territorial legislature. Mr. Bruner, who has been in Washington for the past four months looking after several bills before Congress in which the legislature of Alaska is interested, said, before leaving for his far Northern home: 'The people of the States must fight shy of wild cat mining schemes which promoters will foist upon them. It has been the constant aim of the legislature of Alaska to keep the credit of the Territory first class. When the question of a government-owned railroad came before the legislature it was most generally conceded that the moment the bill making appropriations for the road had passed Congress, it would be the signal for the advent of hundreds of 'Wallingford' and get-rich-quick adventurers who, later on would drift back to the States in due season, with the most unheard-of stories of rich finds, fabulous placers, and a wealth of description that would out-Manchusen old Baron Manchusen himself."

"In view of these conditions I would advise the people who are seriously considering the purchase of Alaska mining stock to go slow. Get someone in whom you have confidence to examine the property before you purchase, otherwise you stand to get stung good and hard."

JUALIN OWNERS HERE JUNE 19

Superintendent A. N. Nadeau, of the Jualin mine, who is in Juneau today, is just in receipt of a cablegram saying that Jean Vanophem, of Brussels, Belgium, who is the central figure among the owners of the mine, will arrive in Juneau June 19th with a party of five capitalists and mining men. Mr. Vanophem is now in Cobalt, Ontario, inspecting silver mines that he owns there.

Things Progressing at Mine.

The A. G. Lindsay, arriving last night, has a shipment of 450 tons of lumber, rails, cars and other supplies including a span of mules, for the Jualin mine. She will leave Juneau for the mine tomorrow night to discharge the freight.

Mr. Nadeau says there are 125 men working at the mine now, representing a pay roll of $25,000 a month. They are driving the big 8,000-foot tunnel in at the rate of 450 feet a month. More than 800 feet are already driven. It is expected to have the work completed within a year. After the first of next year crews will be worked from both ends of the tunnel.

Eight drill men were taken out to the mine last night by Capt. Tibbets in his launch Bristol.

Superintendent Nadeau says the stamp mill will be working soon.

JUNEAU WINS GREAT GAME

Gatineau-Juneau	2	4	2
Douglas-Treadwell	0	0	2

Walter Ford was the hero of yesterday's baseball game. He pitched major league ball, and plucked the sting of Pittman's no hit no run game last Monday by repeating the performance for the Juneau team. The official score gives Douglas neither a hit nor a run.

Douglas got one man on third base, and that was no fault of Ford. Duggan dropped the ball on the third strike for Redmond, and he threw the ball over Hester's head at first. Redmond stopped at second, and went to third on a passed ball. He died there. Juneau scored first in the first inning. Hester hitting for three bases and Reid following with a clean hit.

There was no more scoring until the last half of the eighth when Wright hit; went to second on Molloy's sacrifice; was held at third on Ford's hit, the latter taking second, but scored a moment later when Callan hit. Reid, running for Ford, took third, but was called out at the plate, much to the disgust of Juneau rooters, when he tried to come home on Duggan's bunt. Hester's center field fly ended Johnson's only bad inning.

Wurth saved Ford's airtight game by stealing a two or three bagger from Wood, Douglas' long hitting short stop, just as it was going out into the brush.

Johnson pitched a splendid game, and his support was excellent. Callan, who succeeded Hurlbutt at third for Juneau, Mullen at short, Wright, of the C. W. Young Tigers, at second, and Hester at first, gave Ford a stonewall support.

Callan was particularly brilliant, and Hester's scooping at first captivated the fans.

The real class of Ford's work in the box may be realized when one considers that in two out of the four games he has worked in here only three balls were hit out of the infield. Yesterday there were two, and in the first game only one. In the four games there has been but seven clean, unquestionable hits made against him. He struck out 17 batsmen in the first game and 12 last night.

The performance of the players of both teams aroused the enthusiasm of the fans to a high pitch. The effect of the few days practice the Juneau team had had this week and which was prevented before last Sunday's game showed in their work.

The game was about as nearly the equal of professional baseball at its best as one gets a chance to see, and it far surpassed the average.

MORSE SAYS TEDDY FAVORED MORGAN

NEW YORK, June 5.—Charles W. Morse, commenting on Charles S. Mellen's testimony before the Interstate Commerce Commission, said:

"Mr. Mellen told only about half the truth. What he concealed would make stirring reading and I will tell it to the Interstate Commerce Commission if it desires it. Morgan put four times the capitalization on the steamship lines he wrested from me than I had done. President Roosevelt was bound to 'get me.' He was after me because he favored
