

Lightning-Hit Balloon Safe; Three Others Missing

PORTLAND, Ore., June 13.—Pilot John Berry and aid George G. Morrison, of the balloon that was struck by lightning yesterday, arrived here today. Neither of them was seriously injured.

GOV. STRONG'S FIRST APPEARANCE TONIGHT

The first public appearance in Alaska of Gov. J. F. A. Strong since his visit at Washington will be at the public meeting at Elks' hall tonight under the auspices of the Juneau Democratic Club. The meeting is for men and women of all political faiths.

MARINE NOTES

The Jefferson arrived from the South at 8 a. m., proceeding to Skagway three hours later, returning she will sail South tomorrow noon.

JEFFERSON ARRIVES.

The steamer Jefferson arrived in port this morning at 8 o'clock from Seattle and proceeded to Skagway three hours later with the following passengers:

ROYAL PLAYERS SCORE ANOTHER SUCCESS

The Royal Players company were seen to good advantage last night at their first appearance in the Juneau theatre in "The Bishop's Carriage."

MR. AND MRS. LAFE SPRAY COMING NORTH

Mr. and Mrs. Lafe Spray are passengers for Juneau on the Mariposa that sailed from Seattle last night.

NO COUNCIL MEETING TO BE HELD TONIGHT

There was no council meeting last night as the evening was taken up by the members of the City Council, sitting on the equalization board.

MRS. RUMMEL'S MOTHER DIES.

J. W. Rummel received a telegram this afternoon from Mrs. Rummel in Seattle, stating that her mother had died there at noon today.

THE WEATHER TODAY.

Twenty-four hours ending at 3 p. m.: Maximum, 70. Minimum, 44. Part cloudy.

ALL READY FOR FLAG DAY PROGRAM

Everything is in readiness for the Flag Day exercises that are to take place at Elks' hall tomorrow night under the auspices of Juneau Lodge, No. 420, B. P. O. E. The hall is being decorated with patriotic colors; good music has been provided; the beautiful ritualistic ceremonies will be given, and Gov. J. F. A. Strong will give an address.

The committee in charge of the matter acknowledges its appreciation of the assistance rendered by A. E. Miller, of Tacoma, a member of the order, and chairman of the decoration committee, in arranging the decorations.

The program arranged for tomorrow night follows: Overture—Prof. Sump's Orchestra. Introductory Exercises—Exalted Ruler and Lodge Officers.

FRAME CALLS CONVENTION TO MEET AT VALDEZ

J. W. Frame yesterday called a "Democratic convention" to convene at Valdez July 30th, and announced that it is the purpose of those whom he represents to complete an organization throughout the Territory.

PLANS CALL FOR LARGE DOCKS AND WAREHOUSE

Plans for the new dock, warehouse, cottages and oil tank for the new plant of the Standard Oil company, are now in the hands of local contractors for the purpose of making estimates.

CAREFUL ATTENTION

is given all prescriptions, if taken to Doran's Prescription Pharmacy. Here all prescriptions are invariably compounded with absolute accuracy.

FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN.

Launch Ariel, length 20 ft. 6 in. p. engine. Price $250. Perfect condition. Enquire Davis Bros. P. O. Box 17. 121

UNTIL THE 4th OF JULY, at Charles Goldstein's, a pair of Nettleton shoes or a Stetson hat free with every suit. 6-11-14

SKATING SUNDAY.

Skating Sunday, Jaxon's rink. New floor, new music, new organ. Tell it to everybody.

BUSINESS MEN URGE CO-OPERATIVE MINES

DENVER, Colo., June 13.—Yesterday the committee of citizens appointed at the meeting of the business men and citizens of this State some time ago for the purpose of arranging and suggesting a satisfactory program for the settlement of the coal miners' war and the prevention of similar conflicts in the future, proposed to Gov. Elias M. Ammons that the State assist the coal miners who are dissatisfied with their treatment by the coal mine owners to organize co-operative companies to work some of the State's coal lands.

LEAGUE BASEBALL

NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE Yesterday's Scores: At Victoria—Portland, 9; Victoria, 0. Batteries—Victoria, Pope and Hoffman; Portland, Leonard and Murray.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE.

Yesterday's Scores: At Los Angeles—Venice, 2; Sacramento, 1. Batteries—Venice, White and Elliott; Sacramento, Williams and Hannah.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Yesterday's Scores: At Chicago—Washington, 3; Chicago, 0. Batteries—Chicago, Russell, Jackson, Lathrop and Schaik; Washington, Baley, Ayers and Henry.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Yesterday's Scores: At New York—Chicago, 7; New York, 6. Batteries—New York, Tesreau, Fromme and Wilbe; Chicago, Meyers, Lavender, Humphries, Cheney and Bresnahan and Needham.

FEDERAL LEAGUE.

Yesterday's Scores: At Chicago—Baltimore, 4; Chicago, 0. Batteries—Chicago, Fisk, Blank and Wilson; Baltimore, Suggs and Jacklitsch.

C. R. REID WAS TO BE MARRIED IN SEATTLE

Cunningham R. Reid, an employee in the Governor's office and Juneau's weather man, left Juneau to be married in Seattle. The date of the marriage was fixed for June 11th.

NOTICE.

Members of the Fourth of July committees are requested to meet Tuesday evening, June 16th, instead of Monday, June 15th, as previously announced.

LADIES' HAIR GOODS.

We specialize in rare shade wigs, etc., made to order. THE VOGUE, Mrs. Albert Berry, opposite the Orpheum, Phone Main 243. Tu-Th-Sa.

WILSON TO SIGN REPEAL BILL TOMORROW

WASHINGTON, June 13.—President Woodrow Wilson will sign the free trade repeal bill next Monday, according to an announcement he made last night.

A NEW WELL SPRING.

JUNEAU, June 12.—To the Editor: The diving rod in the hands of expert politicians is seeking out the well springs of the various parties. In the years past the Territory has been well explored and the located sources carefully conducted by devious channels to the main reservoir of the party's supply.

Truly the women of Alaska did not seek in legislative halls the franchise—many tried to avoid the issue. However, the Alaskan woman recognizes the responsibility placed upon her and will assume the duties of suffrage as her sisters are doing in the States.

CHANGE AT THE ORPHEUM.

Tonight the following Class "A" Photo Plays will be shown: "A Frightful Blunder" by the Biograph Co., and shows the narrow escape a patient has on account of a druggist's blunder.

SEATTLE JURY ACQUITS ALLEGED HIRE KILLER

SEATTLE, June 13.—Frank Picconi, whom it was alleged that Mrs. Wernholm had hired to kill her husband on their farm at Issaquah, was acquitted by a jury last night of a charge of murder.

ARCHDEACON HUDSON STUCK IN AT SEATTLE

SEATTLE, June 13.—Archdeacon Hudson Stuck, the Alaska missionary and conqueror of Mt. McKinley, arrived from the East last night on his way back to Alaska.

FOURTH OF JULY FUND PASSES $2,000 MARK

Notwithstanding the fact that over $4000 was collected for baseball purposes this spring, the Fourth of July celebration finance committee has secured $2,000.

LIQUOR SELLING CASE UP BEFORE JUDGE MARSHALL

Alice Moore was arrested this morning under a warrant charging her with selling intoxicating liquors without a license. She was taken before United States Commissioner Marshall where she pleaded not guilty.

SEATTLE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OFFICIAL HERE

W. A. Mears, manager of the Transportation Bureau of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, is a Juneau visitor. He is in Alaska in the interest of the Seattle business, and will visit all the coast towns.

Washington Believes Peace In Mexico Sure Now

MARIPOSA SAILS WITH BIG LIST

SEATTLE, June 13.—The Mariposa sailed for Seattle last night with the following named passengers for Juneau: George Staadacker, Miss J. Norwick, Miss M. Otterson, Miss L. Hanson, Miss Augusta Marcuson, Axel Carlson, John L. Carlson, Mrs. E. B. Henssemen, Miss Cordelia Jennings, E. N. Gott, Miss A. Boyer, Miss Johnson, Esther Carlson, Mrs. D. J. Sullivan, L. R. Hain, Mrs. Milton Winn, Ruth Carlson, George G. Hunter, H. R. Edwards and wife, J. L. Skoog, Lafa Spray and wife, Mrs. W. J. Skoog, Jas. Dempsey, James Mahoney, O. A. Greenleaf, F. H. Bower, V. W. Janney, Geo. Blomskog, J. R. McNeil, Claud Stromberg, T. W. Powers, Mrs. B. Haslam, B. H. Rowe, John Sali and three steerage.

MRS. C. J. NUNNE DIES AT NOME

NOME, June 13.—Mrs. C. J. Nunne, court reporter and one of the most popular women of this city, died here yesterday.

COMMISSION LIVES GO. WALSH'S PLANS.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The Interstate Commerce commission announces that it is pleased with the proposition made by Gov. David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts, that the New Haven be required to sell its holdings in the Boston and Maine railroad to the State of Massachusetts. The plan also meets with the approval of the Department of Justice.

IMPEACHMENT OF DISTRICT COURT JUDGE PROPOSED

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Representative M. M. Neely, of West Virginia, yesterday introduced a resolution in the House calling for the impeachment of United States District Judge Alton G. Dayton, a former Congressman from West Virginia. He was appointed by President Roosevelt.

CONSERVATIONIST SUICIDES.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 13.—Overton W. Price, vice-president of the National Conservation Association, committed suicide by shooting himself yesterday. He was ill.

MT. LASSEN CONTINUES ITS SPECTACULAR ERUPTION

REDDING, Cal., June 13.—Mt. Lassen's eruption which has been in progress for the last month was renewed with special activity yesterday.

ORVILLE WRIGHT MAY QUIT MANUFACTURING

NEW YORK, June 13.—Negotiations are under way which may result in the retirement of Orville Wright from manufacturing aeroplanes, and passing of control of the Wright patents to a company which will exploit them on a commercial basis.

CHEASTY LEAVES FORTUNE ESTIMATED AT $250,000

SEATTLE, June 13.—Edward C. Cheasty, the founder and principal owner of Cheasty's Haberdashery, one of Seattle's leading stores for men and women, who met his death yesterday afternoon at the Washington hotel, left an estate valued at $250,000, consisting of Seattle real estate, including the Sun building, and stock in his store property. Austin McNamara, a cousin, is the only living relative.

RIOTING IN BUTTE CAUSES ALL SALOONS TO BE CLOSED

BUTTE, Mont., June 13.—Rioting during the miners' union day parade today resulted in the closing of all saloons and hardware stores. The trouble occurred over the attempt of non-union men to participate in the parade.

VIVIANI FORMS CABINET FOR FRENCH PRESIDENT

PARIS, June 13.—This evening M. Viviani informed President Poincare that he had succeeded in forming a new Cabinet.

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS FOR SUFFRAGE

CHICAGO, June 13.—The Federation of Women's clubs today endorsed the principle of woman suffrage after a 20-year fight.

MISSISSIPPIAN FOR HAWAIIAN COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Malcom Argyll Franklin, of Mississippi, was today nominated for collector of customs at Honolulu.

FOR RENT—Now house with all modern conveniences.

Finest view property in the city.—I. J. SHARICK. 6-13-14 Mrs. Alma Delaney Teal is a round trip passenger on the Al-Ki.

COMMISSION URGES RAILROAD PUBLICITY

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Full publicity of all railroad affairs was urged before the Senate committee on Interstate Commerce by Judson C. Clements, of the Interstate Commerce Commission. The hearing was on an amendment suggested by the commission for the Rayburn bill, pending in the House.

Commission Likes Gov. Walsh's Plans.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The Interstate Commerce commission announces that it is pleased with the proposition made by Gov. David I. Walsh, of Massachusetts, that the New Haven be required to sell its holdings in the Boston and Maine railroad to the State of Massachusetts. The plan also meets with the approval of the Department of Justice.

IMPEACHMENT OF DISTRICT COURT JUDGE PROPOSED

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Representative M. M. Neely, of West Virginia, yesterday introduced a resolution in the House calling for the impeachment of United States District Judge Alton G. Dayton, a former Congressman from West Virginia. He was appointed by President Roosevelt.

CONSERVATIONIST SUICIDES.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., June 13.—Overton W. Price, vice-president of the National Conservation Association, committed suicide by shooting himself yesterday. He was ill.

ORVILLE WRIGHT MAY QUIT MANUFACTURING

NEW YORK, June 13.—Negotiations are under way which may result in the retirement of Orville Wright from manufacturing aeroplanes, and passing of control of the Wright patents to a company which will exploit them on a commercial basis.

CHEASTY LEAVES FORTUNE ESTIMATED AT $250,000

SEATTLE, June 13.—Edward C. Cheasty, the founder and principal owner of Cheasty's Haberdashery, one of Seattle's leading stores for men and women, who met his death yesterday afternoon at the Washington hotel, left an estate valued at $250,000, consisting of Seattle real estate, including the Sun building, and stock in his store property. Austin McNamara, a cousin, is the only living relative.

RIOTING IN BUTTE CAUSES ALL SALOONS TO BE CLOSED

BUTTE, Mont., June 13.—Rioting during the miners' union day parade today resulted in the closing of all saloons and hardware stores. The trouble occurred over the attempt of non-union men to participate in the parade.

VIVIANI FORMS CABINET FOR FRENCH PRESIDENT

PARIS, June 13.—This evening M. Viviani informed President Poincare that he had succeeded in forming a new Cabinet.

FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS FOR SUFFRAGE

CHICAGO, June 13.—The Federation of Women's clubs today endorsed the principle of woman suffrage after a 20-year fight.

MISSISSIPPIAN FOR HAWAIIAN COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Malcom Argyll Franklin, of Mississippi, was today nominated for collector of customs at Honolulu.

FOR RENT—Now house with all modern conveniences.

Finest view property in the city.—I. J. SHARICK. 6-13-14 Mrs. Alma Delaney Teal is a round trip passenger on the Al-Ki.