A great deal of enthusiasm was developed at the meeting, and it was decided that a good list of sports would be provided for the amusement and entertainment of the people of Douglas Island and visitors.
The rock drilling contests that have always been a feature of Douglas Fourth of July celebrations will be featured.

KAYBEE WAR FEATURE AT GRAND THEATRE TONIGHT

The excellent pictures at the Grand theatre should not be missed. They are both entertaining and instructive. Tonight will be an entire change of program:
"On Fortunes' Wheel" is a two-reel Kay-Bee war feature, full of stirring incidents and dramatic situations. It is action from start to finish.
"A Peach of a Prisoner" is one of Gaumont's very best productions. This is alone worth the price of admission.
"Topilsky" is an excellent Keystone comedy, with a laugh "in every line." It is a good antidote for the blues. Two shows every night. 6-18-14.

"WOODROW" IS ALASKA'S NEWEST COMMUNITY

"Woodrow" is the name of the city that sprang into existence in a day at Ship creek, according to Mrs. Isabel A. Gilman, the Alaska school teacher, author and lawyer, who passed through Juneau today. It is the headquarters of the engineering parties of the Alaska railroad survey, and Mrs. Gilman say it divides honors with Knik as the most active and interesting place in the Westward country.

JAXON'S RINK.

There will be skating Wednesday and Sunday at Jaxon's rink.
