INTERIOR DEMOCRATS WORK IN HARMONY

If the Democrats of Alaska can keep together in their work, as they are doing at present, it seems assured that success will be their reward at the coming election. Late reports from various parts of the Territory indicate that the factions are drawing nearer together all the time, and that when a candidate for delegate to congress is once named, almost all the members of the party will be back of the nominee.

KETCHIKAN MAY INCREASE BOUNDARIES

Ketchikan has taken the preliminary steps to increase the area within its municipal limits by including within them "all of the tide lands and water front abutting the southern boundary of the present town of Ketchikan and the property and plant of the New England Fish Company and the property and plant of the Standard Oil Company and the public cemetery."
