JUALIN PLANS.

THE decision of the owners to push the development of the Juallin mine to the point where it will be one of the big producing properties of Alaska marks another forward step in the advancement of the Juneau district.

they are only Congressmen and not newspaper correspondents who can be held responsible for untruthful statements.

"TAKE-IT-BACK DAY."

THE adoption and ratification by the people of Carmen, Okla., of a "Take-It-Back Day" as a civic institution is proof that not all the woolly product of that State is wild and unkempt.

The point and purpose of "Take-It-Back Day" is that every borrower shall on that day return every borrowed article of the past year. There is no exception for books and umbrellas.

Hearst favors a high tariff, he is an Imperialist and a Jingo, he opposes Wilson and Bryan, and predicts Republican success at the polls.

THE MAKING OF A RECORD.

THE fine record made by Congress about which Speaker Champ Clark has done considerable pardonable bragging was made by crowding through the administration program.

It is said in the reports from Carmen of the first day of observance: "Many persons that had grudges against one another took advantage of the general good feeling inspired by the day to make up, and several neighborhood feuds were ended."

For the sake of harmony among his remaining followers, The Colonel should go easy on the Underwood-Simmons tariff, for which so many of his Progressive friends in Congress cast their votes.

The vigor with which anti-administration newspapers proclaim the existence of hard times and that dangers beset the country is not contributing anything toward improved conditions.

While Villa still calls Caranaza chief he is afraid to trust him in a conference with Huerta. He would rather do the conferring himself with his army near.

Douglas has again taken the lead in the Gastineau channel baseball contest, and it is now Juneau's task to catch up.

A Ketchikan wag says he will not attempt to ride on a gasboat across Dixon's entrance again without a saddle.

"Gadfly" Humphrey and some of those other anti-administration Representatives can thank their stars that
