DOUGLAS NEWS NOTES.

DOUGLAS, July 14.—W. George, on Sunday evening, entertained the members of the Douglas Island baseball team at his home on East Third St., with an evening of music and games. The music was furnished by the Mandolin Club led by Clarence Salmonson. Refreshments were served.
J. W. Martin and son Stanton, returned on the Georgia yesterday afternoon from Haines. Mr. Martin has been absent about a week.
BORN — to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Weschenfelder, a son, on July 14th. Most Gasperina left for the south on the Spokane.
M. Ata was a passenger on the Spokane for Ketchikan.
Mrs. Arthur Reindeau, of the Perseverance is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Nels Lee.
Noel Whitmer, employed at the Douglas meat market is a southbound passenger on the Spokane this evening. He will spend a couple of months vacation on the Sound.

$100,000 FILM AT THE LYRIC THEATRE TOMORROW

DOUGLAS, July 14.—The famous photoplay "Les Miserables," will be seen tomorrow night at the Lyric for the first time, and will be repeated Thursday night.
The play is full of the most natural characters ever depicted by the pen of man. Jean Valjean, is a criminal for whom you have the deepest sympathy while his foster daughter, Cosette, is a very lovable character.
The scene of the barricades in the streets of Paris and the rioting of the mob is the most realistic picture ever produced.
Tonight the program will be the same as at last night's show.

CIGAR MAN MOVES PLACE OF BUSINESS

DOUGLAS, July 14.—His lease having expired, and the room being needed by the City Bar, Emil Fischer is today moving his stock of cigars and tobaccos into the Penglass building four doors west of his former site. The building now occupied by Mr. Fischer was formerly the Salt Lake Bar and has been entirely remodelled.

DOUGLAS-BAR BEING PUT IN REPAIR

DOUGLAS, July 14.—The Road Commission crew, under Superintendent Jack Hayes, is spending a few days in repairing the Douglas-Bar road. They are ballasting and graveling the road, and repairing bridges and culverts as far as the proposed bridge site across Gastineau Channel.

TREADWELL NOTES

TREADWELL, July 14.—W. W. Casey, Jr., has returned to the Cyanide plant after an absence of almost two years.
James Skanne, who has just returned from Greece, has taken his old position at the Cyanide plant.
A party, headed by Ericsson and Bell, from the foundry, went on a fishing trip last Sunday to Oliver's Inlet. Returning they fished near a cannery and caught a trout which they claim is the oldest fish in Alaska. Everyone who has been within a mile of them since agrees with them. Scotch bait was used.
There will be a ten cent tea tomorrow afternoon given by the Ladies Guild of St. Luke's church. The tea will be held at the home of Mrs. L. S. Ferris.
Ed Widlund has gone to work with the carpenter force at this place.
Ed Sutton has received a telegram from his brother "Ernie" at Cordova saying that he will soon return to Treadwell. "Ernie" was one of the early stamperers into the Chisana diggings last summer.
An interesting wedding is a laughable comedy by the Pathe Co.
"The Modern Prodigal" is a special feature in two parts by the Vitagraph company with James Morrison and Mary Maurice, one of the cleverest old lady actresses on the stage, in the leads.
