THE COUNTRY ABROAD AND "LITTLE AMERICANS" AT HOME.

STATESMEN, scholars, press and people of the whole world are praising the United States for the high standard the government has set for itself in its conduct of foreign affairs.

are those at home who would destroy that prestige for the sake of political profit. Already we hear now and again someone say that the government of the United States is higher in its aims than the people of its country.

The Huertalistas are quitting Mexico on the installation plan. And that recalls that the title deed never passes until the last installment is paid.

"IT'S BETTER LATE THAN NEVER"

SENATORS and Representatives may froth and fuss about being kept at Washington in the sweltering heat while they wrestle with the anti-trust bills if they feel that way, but when they get back home among the people they will discover the truth in the old saying: "It's better late than never."

Whenever there is nothing else stirring Landon and The Colonel begin making faces at each other for the amusement of the people.

The Constitutionists are agreed that Mexico should have a constitutional government spelled with a capital "C."

was broken into by burglars last week and the safe robbed of $1,000 in cash and valuable papers.

President O. L. Dickson, of the White Pass, is advertising the White Pass system as the second longest transportation system in the United States.

Judge Fred M. Brown has called a session of the Third Division district court for Seward to begin October 2.

A letter from Chisana dated in June says that a rich strike has been made on the Bonanza creek claim of Andy Taylor. The pans ran as high as $14
