THREE INDIANS DROWN IN STICKINE RIVER
WRANGELL, Aug. 20.—The Winfred came down the river last Friday and brought the report of the drowning of three natives near Buck's Bar on August 12th. It seems the party composed of Mat Richie, about 35, Kitty Jackson, 16 years and her brother Chas. Jackson, about 12 years old were crossing the river in a canoe which was caught in the current, turned turtle, and before any of the party could get hold of it was carried downstream about 400 yards where it was picked up by the Winfred. The river is being dragged for the bodies which up to the last reports have not been recovered.—Wrangell Sentinel.
