The European war has caused rubber goods to take a decided advance which will mean that in the near future we will feel the advance on our local market.

THE CLOSING CHORDS?
List to the wonderful music! Never on earth before Gathered an orchestra like this— Played such a score!

Bent in a vast diapason Shaking the earth and the sky, Loud as the thunder in heaven, Low as a sigh,—
Millions of feet, hoofs and wheels, when Trumpet, drum, flag-rustle call; Mutter of mobs like the surf on Pavement and wall;

Deep, wide from throats red like hell-plits, Bass of the Krupp and Creusot; Crooning like brook-chant, like bees' hum, The bullet-song's flow;

Drone high aloft of the scout-plane, Crackle of spark from the mast, Swash of the "sub" and torpedo, Broadside's hot blast;

Tumult in tongues half a dozen,— Order, oath, cheer, song and cry; Uttered in tongue universal, Ghost-giving sigh.

Crash of the closing crescendo, End of the closing, End of the symphony vast? Hark we the ultimate chorus, Loudest—and last? — Boston News Bureau Poet.
