BUSINESS MEN TO CONSIDER EXHIBIT

At the next meeting of the Juneau Commercial club which will be in the city council chambers next Tuesday night, the importance of taking some definite and united action in the matter of having an adequate exhibit in the Panama Pacific Exposition at San Francisco, will be fully discussed. Gov. J. F. A. Strong has made appeals to the people in general and through their commercial bodies and other organizations to cooperate in the matter to the end that Alaska may participate in the great exposition in a creditable manner. He has warned the people that there will be no funds from the Federal appropriation for the collection of an exhibit, nor for its maintenance beyond a few thousands of dollars, and that if the people do not act on their own account Alaska will not be fairly represented at the exhibition.

President H. J. Fisher, of the Commercial club has been giving considerable thought to the matter and is in hearty sympathy with the interest manifested by Gov. Strong in the matter. Mr. Fisher would like to see a large attendance at the meeting and would like to hear expressions on the subject as to the best way of accomplishing the desired end.

The future development of Juneau's resources it is argued by most mining men will now, and for some time to come, have to depend largely on home capital, on account of the havoc created in financial circles by the great war in Europe. In order to attract home capital it is urged that it will be necessary to make home people acquainted with the resources that are to be developed.

The Coal Question.

Another important subject that will probably be touched on is the danger of a coal shortage for Alaska towns in event of the British Columbia coal being shut off through some turn in the fortune of war. This is a burning question that is agitating the minds of several coast communities in Alaska who depend largely on the British Columbia mines for coal.

Nearly every town on the coast has sent letters and petitions urging congress to hurry coal legislation to the end that Alaska coal may be speedily placed on the market. President Fisher of the Juneau Commercial Club would like to know if the people of Juneau are interested in the question.

Gov. Strong has also brought this matter before the commercial organizations in the towns of Alaska and has assured the people of Alaska communities through their commercial bodies that he takes a deep interest in a matter that is of such vital concern to them.

Senator Key Pittman of Nevada, who lived in Nome in the early days and who has proved himself a strong friend of Alaska on all occasions has taken hold of the matter in earnest and is working hard to have the leasing bill now pending acted upon and to further such other legislation as may be of benefit to the people receive attention.

MARIPOSA ARRIVES WITH FREIGHT AND PASSENGERS

The Mariposa arrived from the south last night bringing about 150 tons of general merchandise for Juneau. There was quite a large list of passengers aboard for Westward points. The following were for Juneau: Mrs. K. Kunsten, F. Joslin, Mrs. E. Sherman, George H. Graham, Joe Perry, T. V. Tatum, W. E. Anderson, Miss A. Marcuson, James Crawford, Frank Speckert, H. C. Meek, E. L. Armstrong.

SEARCHING FOR CONTRABAND GOODS

VANCOUVER, Aug. 24.—C. P. R. coast steamer Princess Charlotte, Captain Griffin, from Seattle, was held up by an American revenue cutter off Port Townsend and the American commander searched her for contraband of war. The order to stop came as a big surprise but the fast C. P. R. boat was not long delayed and arrived here at about her usual hour, leaving for Victoria at 10:30 a. m.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF WOODROW WILSON

The Democratic Congressional committee has issued the following resume of accomplishments and statement concerning the policies of President Woodrow Wilson:

I. A firm foreign policy—one of watchful waiting—which prevented a war with Mexico, and made impossible untold loss of lives, the demoralization of business, and a staggering war debt. On the other hand the Mexican people have advanced as never before by the President's fight to restore to them possession of their land.

II. A revision of the rules of business without the usual and heretofore inevitable panic. As the result of the efforts of the President the laws have been made the same for everybody—big and little—not by wholesale denunciation and litigation, but by peaceable and judicious means.

III. Refutation of the oft-repeated taunts that the Democratic party had not capacity for solving questions requiring constructive treatment. Witness the currency, tariff, income tax, the nearly completed trust bills and other wise legislation that not only received the votes of Democrats, but the votes of Republicans and Bull Moosers as well in both the Senate and House.

IV. A tariff that compels the trusts to sell as cheaply to you as to the people of foreign lands. Framed without concessions to special interests.

V. A currency law under which you get your money when you need it—one that prevents panics and insures stable financial conditions.

VI. An income tax that places upon the rich a just proportion of the $1,000,000,000 a year, which is now the cost of maintaining the Federal Government.

VII. An arbitration act providing for conciliation and arbitration in controversies between capital and labor, which has already been successfully employed in preventing great strikes that would have tied up the entire railway business of the nation.

VIII. Enlargement of the scope of the parcel post, which has reduced the cost of transportation, and become a lasting and convenient instrument of benefit to the consumer and producer.

IX. Trust laws based on the Golden Rule—"The trusts must do unto others as they would have others do unto them," i. e., Obey court decrees! Abandon unfair cut-throat competition! Cease discriminating between purchasers of their goods! Disgorge control of competitors acquired under the "holding company" system. Surrender the enormous power wielded through interlocking dictatorates!

X. Legislation provided for cooperative agricultural extension work.

XI. The fostering and development of commerce at home and abroad as never before. Legislation recently enacted will result in the dispatch of commercial attaches to all foreign countries in addition to the location of offices of this branch of the service in the various large cities at home.

FINALLY.

Your President has worked untiringly and with a sincerity entirely new to our political life for what he considered the best interests of mankind. He has worked unceasingly and without vacation—day in and day out—for the rank and file of the public and not for any clique or group. He has worked for peace—peace at home as well as peace abroad.

The record made by Woodrow Wilson is without parallel in the entire history of the Nation.

ROOSEVELT RIDICULES BRYAN PEACE TREATIES

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt today again ridiculed the Bryan peace treaties to which he devoted considerable time in his New England speeches. He said the war in Europe, where Nations tore up treaties and went to war shows the futility of trying to establish peace through treaties.

BERLIN DECORATES WITH ROYAL GENERALS' PORTRAITS

BERLIN, Aug. 29.—Berlin is decorated with the portraits of the royal generals at the head of armies at the front. Pictures of the Crown Prince and the Grand Duke Albrecht predominate.

JUNEAITES BECOME SHRINERS TONIGHT

At a special session of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine held in Elk's hall last night William Alken, "novice," was least across the hot sands of the desert. John Rex Thompson, potentate, and other newly arrived officers of Nile Temple, Seattle, assisted by local Nobles saw that Schilling's Best representative reached an oasis and was refreshed.

The following Nobles arrived on the Mariposa last night: James R. Crawford, George H. Graham, Frank Speckert, Charles Banburg.

Nile Temple Officers:
John Rex Thompson, potentate.
V. A. Payne, illustrious chief rabban.
G. H. Graham, assistant illustrious rabban.
R. Reed, illustrious high priest.
J. R. Crawford, Oriental guide.
J. R. Jones, first ceremonial master.
J. F. Chamberlain, second ceremonial master.
A. Shiels, illustrious marshal.
D. Kazale, recorder.
G. Hallock, alchemist.
J. V. Winter, assistant alchemist.
D. A. Epstein, captain of the guard.

The special session held last night was for the benefit of Mr. Alken who was compelled to leave for the Westward on the Mariposa. The real ceremonials and big time will occur tonight when the large class of "novices" will march over the hot trail to the cheering oasis. Before starting across the scorching sands, however, a business session will occupy considerable time and this meeting was to begin at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The following "novices" will make the journey tonight: From Juneau—F. Dillon Smith, Isa Goldstein, Z. R. Cheney, Alex. C. Prussing, R. J. Wulzen, Ed. Webster, William M. Frye, Frank Doverspike, D. M. Bothwell, H. Stevens, John Rustard, Harold Haskell Post; from Treadwell—Ben Leaming, Merl Thomas, C. G. McKinnon, Archie A. Lewis, L. S. Ferris, William Christie, C. P. Osterberg, Alfred Hunt; from Douglas—Paul Bloedhorst, J. W. Martin, William Fels, Jr.; from Haines—H. O. Banta; from Skagway—Max Gutfeldt, W. C. Wright, James A. Nettles.

Candidates will report at 6:30 and the ceremonials will begin at 7 o'clock sharp.

Mr. Thompson has been in Alaska before and was in Fairbanks in connection with the work in the Tanana metropolis. Just before coming to Juneau he initiated a class of 140 in Manila.

FIGHTS SHY OF PRINCE OF WALES COAST

SEATTLE, Aug. 22.—After an inspection trip over the west coast of Prince of Wales Island, Southeastern Alaska, Supt. R. R. Pierson, of the Alaska Steamship company, has returned to his desk in Pier 2. He expressed himself as much impressed with the dangers of navigation in those poorly chartered waters and averse to further risking any of the steel-bottomed vessels of his fleet in West Coast service.

Pierson had never been to many of the little cannery ports that have grown up within the last two years and made this district one of the most productive in the North. The Pacific Coast Steamship Company lost the steamship Curacao on a run to the west coast and the Alaska Steamship Company's steamship Cordova was badly damaged by striking an uncharted rock on the same route. Two wooden-hulled vessels, the Delhi and the Santa Ana, respectively, are now the only craft sent to this section by the Pacific Coast and Alaska Steamship Companies.—Seattle Times.
