YAKUTAT INDIANS GETTING LAWLESS

The native Indians of Yakutat are becoming dangerous, according to a letter received by Marshal H. A. Bishop from a man named Early, who says that he conducts a store at that place. He says that the natives are making "booze" and drinking the same; that they are continually fighting and brawling and making the place uninhabitable. The letter states that on Sept. 16, two days prior to the writing of the letter, that a lot of the drunk Indians came to his place of business and demanded goods without payment and that when he refused they threw the goods over the counter and out of the place and cursed him and called all sorts of vile names. The letter concludes with a strong appeal for the appointment of a deputy United States marshal for that place, saying that if this is not done, shot guns will have to be resorted to for self-protection. Marshal Bishop has been endeavoring to get permission from the Department of Justice to appoint a deputy at Yakutat. Special Officer Joe Snow in his official report to Gov. J. F. A. Strong a year ago recommended that a deputy marshal be appointed at the same place on account of the lawless disposition of the Yakutat Indians and their practice of making "hootch," and committing other infractions of the law.

REDFIELD URGES CAUTION IN SOUTH AMERICA

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Secretary William C. Redfield of the Department of Commerce says: "While there is splendid business opportunity for American manufacturers in South America, gold ingots do not lie in the streets of South American cities, and plums are not lying on the ground awaiting picking. Careful consideration of every step in the development of South American business at this time will pay in the end. It must not be forgotten that South American countries have felt the shock of the European war, even worse than we have."

KITCHNER HAS BEEN AT THE FRONT TWICE

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Letters from London say that Lord Kitchner has been at the front twice within the past fortnight. His latest visit of three days was to confer with Field Marshal French and Gen. Joffre. For some time there has been considerable difference of opinion between the British and French leaders arising out of the retreat after the battle of Charleroi. So acute did the feeling become that Lord Kitchner deemed it necessary to personally intervene, which he did successfully.

RAILROAD RATE CASE MAY BE REOPENED

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The New York Tribune says it now seems practically certain that one of the direct results of recent conferences of the committee of railroad presidents with President Woodrow Wilson and members of the Interstate Commerce Commission will be a reopening of the eastern freight rate case. It was recently learned that a majority of the commission told the railroad executives that they would not oppose such a move, and expressed regret over the character of the decisions rendered July 31.

PRIVATE CITIZENS PAY HOLLAND'S MOBILIZATION

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 25.—Queen Wilhelmina has accepted the offer of six of the richest men in Holland to give one-tenth of their fortunes to pay the expenses of the present mobilization which is costing 1,000,000 guilder a day. These men insist that no taxes be levied for the maintenance of the war.

GREAT POLITICAL STORY BE AT GRAND TONIGHT

"The Boss," in 2 parts, will be seen at the Grand for the last time tonight. It is an interesting drama of politics and gives an accurate insight into the old machine methods. "The Country Maid's Romance" is a story well told and interesting, and the "Hansom Driver" is a comedy of the first order. The Animated Weekly is of itself a whole show and displays a number of historical and other current events. On Sunday evening will be seen "Arizona" in six parts and two hundred and ten scenes, staged as a photo-drama under the personal direction of Augustus Thomas, the author, and produced by the All Star Feature corporation, will be seen at the Grand, starting at 7. Admission to any seat in the house will be 25c. Probably there is no play more familiar to theatre-goers than "Arizona" and certainly there are few, if any, which lend themselves so readily to the uses of the photo-drama.
