

ALASKA DAILY EMPIRE
Douglas Branch
M. A. SNOW, Manager

DOUGLAS, Oct. 29.—The Eagles will give the second of the regular dances at their hall Saturday night. The Lyric orchestra will furnish the music.

Tom Gilligan will leave for the outside on the Admiral Evans on her next trip south. The tax books are finished and now ready to be placed in the hands of the treasurer on the first of November.

The Henson flats at the rear of the Henson building have been completed and are filled, with the exception of the Salmonson family, by bachelors. The new salt water tank, on the hill is full and in good order. One of the councilmen stated that the city pump pumped the last two feet of water into the tank in ten minutes. The Ladies of the Congregational Church are holding a meeting this afternoon.

ANOTHER BIG FEATURE AT THE LYRIC THEATRE

DOUGLAS, Oct. 29.—Tonight and tomorrow night the Lyric theatre will show another big feature to its patrons. The picture is a two-reel feature entitled: "The Sins of the Fathers" and shows the results of a father's conduct in the lives of his children. A very fascinating problem play. Two more reels, a comedy and a drama will complete the show. ****

SHRINERS TO CELEBRATE

DOUGLAS, Oct. 29.—The Shriners of Douglas and Juneau have received the following card: "Noble:—All Shriners and their ladies are going to be at Odd Fellows

Hall, Friday evening, Oct. 30th, at 8 p. m. Be sure to come. One thousand dollars fine for non-attendance. "Cards, music, eats, dancing." (Signed) DAVE KENZIE, Secretary. "Don't forget your Fez."

TREADWELL, Oct. 29.—The new warehouse on the Treadwell dock is fast nearing completion, the roof being practically finished and the sides being covered as fast as possible.

The City of Seattle left Seattle last night for the North. She has 169 tons of freight for Treadwell. D. J. Wynkoop and family have moved from Douglas and are occupying the McHamilton house.

Arrangements are being made to receive the election returns at the Treadwell Club next Tuesday night. A special wire will probably be run to the club.

Next Wednesday night being the first Wednesday of the month, a dance will be given by the Treadwell orchestra at the club. The Treadwell Social Dancing Club will meet for their fifth dance at the Slavonic Society Hall.

It is said on good authority that the plans for a series of football games between Treadwell and the other side of the channel have fallen through, and that there will be no games this fall.

MOOSE MEET TONIGHT.

The regular meeting of Juneau Lodge No. 700, L. O. O. M., tonight (Oct. 29), at 8 p. m. Special business and initiation. All members are urged to attend. Visiting members are welcome.

THOS. J. McCAUL, Secretary.

FOOTBALL PLAYERS ASKED TO REPORT

Arrangements are under way for the formation of a first-class football team to represent Juneau during the football season that is now under way. The following notice was issued today:

The following men are asked to report at the Occidental Hotel barber shop, at two o'clock Saturday afternoon:

"Anderson, Blossom, Brewster, Brennan, Callen, Douglas, Healey, Henderson, Harris, (Chick), Langulle, Momb, "Spike" Malone, King, Moeser, Purcell, Postle, Perkins, Reilly, Smith, Sandstrom, Remmick, Carmien, Gerem, Shattuck, and Von Valkenberg. Arrangements will be made for these men to be let off at that time. Details later."

FRAMEITES GET OUT LEGISLATIVE TICKET

The so-called "Progressive Democratic" legislative ticket which contains the names of R. B. Oliver, N. J. Svindseth, F. Wolland, and P. H. Gandy as candidates for the House of Representatives was promulgated by the Framite supporters at Ketchikan. The ballots were printed in the office of the Ketchikan Mail, and the ticket was advertised in the columns of that paper.

Literature in behalf of R. B. Oliver, one of the candidates for the House, has been distributed throughout the city. It solicits support for him, in part, because he is a supporter of Delegate Wickersham.

There is absolutely no truth in the Dispatch's statement that the ticket was put in the field by Charles H. Cosgrove. Representative N. J. Svindseth says the ticket is the result of a conspiracy to divide the opposition to the Non-Partisan ticket, whether that is correct or not. The Empire has no other information than is here given.

AT THE JUNEAU.

"Meet me at the Juneau tonight," is becoming a saying around Juneau and indeed tonight's new bill makes it a place good enough for any one to meet at.

"The Plot Against the Governor," is a gripping drama of the day, with James Cruz, of the "Million Dollar Mystery" as the governor. Then there is a delightful Keystone comedy, and the National Weekly with its many points of interesting information.

Among other things, its latest views for the ladies from "Paree". Mlle. Violet will entertain in her usual classy manner, and Prof. Crandall on his genuine Garmaris violin will render his regular classic. Curtain rises at 7:30 and 9:00. Two shows. ***

HALOWEEN PARTY FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday school children of the Episcopal church will hold their annual Halloween party tomorrow evening in the basement of the church at 5 o'clock sharp. Over 30 children will sit down to a typical Halloween supper. All manner of good things are to be provided. After supper the children will amuse themselves with games and Jack-o-lanterns. The entertainment will close at 8 p. m.

All children of the Sunday school, teachers and parents are invited to the supper and to the entertainment afterwards.

ELKS TO GIVE BIG THANKSGIVING BALL

The Juneau Lodge of Elks decided last night to give a big Thanksgiving masquerade ball. A handsome list of prizes will be awarded to those participating, and other interesting features will be presented. The details will be given to the public from time to time as they are decided upon.
