

NISH, SERB CAPITAL, TOTTERS BEFORE BOMBARDMENT

VILLA IS BIG LOSER IN ATTACK

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Nov. 2.—General Calles wired the Carranza agency in Washington this afternoon that he had defeated Villa...

General Calles reported that the Villa forces were in full retreat, leaving large numbers of dead and wounded behind them...

Villa moved 10,000 of his men yesterday under the cover of a dense haze of smoke from a Douglas copper smelter...

SEVEN DIED IN WRECK OF S. S. LEONA

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 1.—Confirmation of reports of the death of seven members of the crew of the steamship Leona...

ENGLAND ASKED TO EXPLAIN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Secretary Lansing today cabled instructions to Ambassador Page at London...

Terminating the seizure of the vessels as "high handed and illegal," officials of the State Department early today indicated that the seizures would be vigorously protested...

RUMANIANS ARE DRILLING MANY RECRUITS

LONDON, Nov. 2.—News coming by way of Paris lends support to the growing impression that Rumania is preparing to intervene in the war...

RECALL OF IMPERIAL MINISTER?

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Will our government be forced to request the recall of Count Johann von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States?

NAVY IS KEY TO VICTORY SAYS ASQUITH

LONDON, Nov. 2.—That Great Britain's mighty navy still will be the determining factor in the world war and that England has confidence in ultimate victory was declared by Premier Asquith in the House of Commons today...

BLOODIEST BATTLE ON SERB SOIL

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Serbian resistance in the Northern part of that country has been crushed and the fall of Nish, the provisional capital, is hourly expected...

COURT DEAF TO APPEAL OF CLUB RETAILING LIQUOR

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Card and social clubs in Alaska must pay a license to retail liquors the same as prescribed for saloons...

MRS. CAMPEN IS ON STAND

The trial of Mrs. Cecilia Campen, charged with attempting to kill her husband, Walter Campen, began in the United States district court this morning at 10:30 o'clock...

VITAL ISSUE BEFORE VOTERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Nine states, all east of the Mississippi, are today holding elections on questions varying from women's suffrage and prohibition to the election of governors and legislators...

GASTINEAU CHANNEL MAY GET BRIDGE

Contingent upon the co-operation of business men who are not residents of Gastineau channel cities but who are interested in them in a business way, upon the approval of the directors of the local banks of proposed loans from the banks and upon approval by the Secretary of War of plans submitted by Col. W. P. Richardson...

S. S. GEORGIA BREAKS RUDDER IN LYNN CANAL

While on her way to Skagway Sunday the steamship Georgia broke her rudder and is now lying in anchor in Bridget's Cove, awaiting the arrival of the steam tug Alice...

BALLAINES WIN SUIT INVOLVING SEWARD TOWNSITE

SEWARD, Nov. 2.—Judge Fred M. Brown this morning rendered judgment for John E. and Frank L. Ballaines, defendants in the suit against them by the Alaska Northern Railroad company for the townsite of Seward...

LINDENBERGER GOES BANKRUPT

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—The Lindeneberg Packing Company, operating salteries and salmon mill-curing plants at Nushagak and Sotukteen Alaska, today went into the hands of a receiver...

FRENCH DIVER IS DESTROYED

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—The French submarine Turquoise has been sunk by Turkish artillery fire according to an official statement issued today by the Turkish war office...

GERMANS ATTEMPT TO CAPTURE RIGA HAS BEEN GIVEN SETBACK

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The Times says today that Russian troops have been landed at Varna, an important Bulgarian port on the Black Sea...

GERMANY WILL BLOCK GRECIAN COAST WITH SUBS

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—Submarine blockade of the Grecian coast was ordered yesterday, and will be effective immediately, it was announced by the war office today...

ANTI-ALIEN LAW IS "UNCONSTITUTIONAL"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The United States Supreme Court late yesterday handed down a decision which declares that the Arizona anti-alien labor law is unconstitutional...

TURKEY CLAIMS THAT ALLIES ARE NOW WEAKENING

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 2.—The war office says the Allied commanders on Gallipoli peninsula have notified their respective governments that unless they receive reinforcements immediately they will be compelled to abandon important positions which have been held at a heavy cost...

BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO PROTEST AGAINST ABUSE OF AMERICAN PASSPORTS

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The British government in preparing a protest against the abuse of American passports by persons to whom they are issued, an official statement will soon be issued...

ITALY HOLDS COTTON INTENDED FOR GERMANS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—American cotton valued at approximately $50,000,000 shipped from the United States and consigned to Germany is in possession of the Italian government, according to Captain J. W. Batchelor, of the Liverpool Salvage Association...

SONS GET DAMAGES

SEATTLE—The heirs of Mrs. Lillian B. Whitteley, who was killed in auto accident in 1913, today were awarded damages in the sum of $4,150. The money is payable to the late Walter and Raynor Whitteley, sons of the dead woman.

SEATTLE STUDENTS SAIL TO "ROOT" IN CALIFORNIA GAME

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—Two hundred students at the University of Washington sailed for San Francisco on the steamship Congress this morning to witness the Saturday clash on Berkeley Field, of the Washington and California university football teams.

CAPT. LOUIS LANE ON WAY TO SEATTLE

FAIRBANKS, Nov. 2.—Capt. Louis L. Lane, who sold his power schooner, Polar Bear, to V. Stefansson last fall and made delivery of the boat too late to secure transportation to Nome, arrived from the Arctic yesterday and departed this morning for Seattle...

SELF SLAIN EDITOR HAD BIG INSURANCE

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 2.—Edward L. Prentiss, publisher of the St. Louis Times, who killed himself yesterday had life insurance policies in force for $100,000, it was learned today.

RUSSIA BUYS TRUCKS

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The International Motor Company of New Jersey has just closed an order for 700 five-ton motor trucks to be constructed for Russia.

WEATHER REPORT

Maximum—43. Minimum—32. Cloudy; rain, 34 in.

THIRTEEN ARE INCINERATED

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—When a tenement in North Sixth street, Brooklyn, burned yesterday thirteen persons are known to have burned to death. The origin of the fire has not been discovered.

ANCHORAGE CHURCH STARTED THIS WEEK

SEWARD, Nov. 2.—Rev. James L. McBride passed through this city on Thursday on his way to Anchorage where he will commence the erection of the new Presbyterian church at this place. Mrs. McBride expects to join him within a few weeks.

AGED SISTER OF GENERAL MILES IS TOURING THE NATION

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Anna Maria Miles Sprague, a sister of General Nelson A. Miles, is in Seattle for a few days. She is on a tour of the United States, during which she expects to visit friends and relatives in every state in the Union. Mrs. Sprague is 75 years old.

NEW YORK'S INTEREST ACCOUNT IS $54,000,000

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—New York City will have to pay in 1916 $4,343,188 solely for interest on its city debt, an increase of $3,882,739 over 1915.

HERMAN RIDDER DIES IN NEW YORK CITY

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Herman Ridder, editor and publisher of the New York Staats Zeitung, president of the International Typetting Machine Co., which makes the Intertype type casting machine in competition with the Mergenthaler Linotype, died here yesterday, of disease of the kidneys. Ridder was born in New York 65 years ago, and early engaged in newspaper work. He was not only editor and publisher of the New York Staats Zeitung, the leading German newspaper of the United States, at the time of his death, but he was a director of the Associated Press. He took an active interest in civic and social reform, and was prominent in the Democratic party for many years. He was a former treasurer of the National Democratic committee.

COL. H. E. REVELL CARRIES ANCHORAGE WINTER MAIL

ANCHORAGE, Nov. 2.—The first mail for the interior left over the trail from Seward yesterday, and the first mail for this city will leave on November 15th. The mail contract has just been awarded to Col. H. E. Revell and calls for 800 pounds of mail a week. This contract, together with the interior mail contract which Mr. Revell also holds, will give him approximately 1500 pounds of mail a week out of Seward. Col. Revell expects to employ 50 dogs in the discharge of the two contracts.

TEN DYE PLANTS IN OPERATION

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—There are now ten dye plants in this country making 20,000 aniline and intermediates. The total output is 20,000 pounds daily. The tenth plant started yesterday. Another company capitalized at $15,000,000 has started plans for extensive works in different parts of the country.

TRIED TO END LIFE.

SEATTLE, Nov. 2.—A. B. Bolt, of Fresno, Calif., shot himself with suicidal intent in the Hotel Frye at an early hour this morning. He will recover.

WEDDING IN DECEMBER
Washington, Nov. 2.—It was formally announced last evening at the White House that the marriage of President Wilson and Mrs. Elizabeth Galt will take place near the close of December at Mrs. Galt's home. The wedding will be private.

WIRELESS TELEPHONE TO TALK WITH TOKYO
WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The wireless station at Arlington, Va., is being "tuned up" to talk with Tokyo, 11,000 miles away. It is the expectation of the experts before long to girdle the globe with the wireless telephone.

WHEAT EXPORTS EXCEED ALL WEEKLY RECORDS

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The exports of wheat from the United States and Canada during the past week amounted to 11,113,093 bushels, a high record. The previous high-water mark was 10,915,119 in the week of January 7th.

CRACKER FACTORY TO BE STARTED IN SEWARD

SEWARD, Nov. 2.—Several local business men here have announced their intention to establish a cracker and biscuit factory here in the near future, and it is expected that the new company will file its articles of incorporation within the week at the office of the Secretary of Alaska in Juneau.

LONDON NEWSPAPER MAN FAVORS SMALLER CABINET

Lord Northcliffe, owner of the London Times, says in the New York World that the present British cabinet of 22 is unwieldy and the government should be by a small committee.

PARIS—ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS DAY WAS OBSERVED HERE AND THROUGHOUT FRANCE TODAY AND YESTERDAY, BY PILGRIMAGES OF WRATH-BEARING THROUGS OF MOURNERS to the cemeteries, in most of which are buried soldiers who have fallen on the field of battle.

VALDEZ MAN GOT AID.

WASHINGTON—The government is publishing the names of those accepting financial aid, in getting out of the European war zone, who have since failed to return the cash advanced. The list includes Mr. K. Graden of Gudde, Alaska.

NEW YORK GETS NEARLY $35,000,000 IN ONE WEEK

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—In addition to the $1,000,000 gold for Wells, Fargo & Co., the Baltic brought in approximately $2,600,000 consigned to the New York banks, all in British sovereigns.

NEW BATTLESHIPS TO BE STRONGLY PROTECTED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The specifications of the two new battleships, bids for which will be opened on Nov. 19, will call for the equipment of the greatest defense against torpedo attacks yet introduced into any American battleship; several new ideas will be appended in the construction of hulls to enable ships to better withstand submarine torpedo blows.

W. J. McCARTHERY DIES

SEATTLE—W. J. McCarthy, a well known lawyer, died this morning.

HUERTA IS ILL

EL PASO—Victoriano Huerta, ex-dictator of Mexico, is reported to be seriously ill in his prison at Fort Bliss.

SONS GET DAMAGES

SEATTLE—The heirs of Mrs. Lillian B. Whitteley, who was killed in auto accident in 1913, today were awarded damages in the sum of $4,150. The money is payable to the late Walter and Raynor Whitteley, sons of the dead woman.

KING OUT OF DANGER.

LONDON—Ging George returned yesterday from the front. He is in no danger from the effects of injuries sustained when his mount fell while he was reviewing his troops.

BRITISH GOVERNMENT TO PROTEST AGAINST ABUSE OF AMERICAN PASSPORTS

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The British government in preparing a protest against the abuse of American passports by persons to whom they are issued, an official statement will soon be issued.

ITALY HOLDS COTTON INTENDED FOR GERMANS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—American cotton valued at approximately $50,000,000 shipped from the United States and consigned to Germany is in possession of the Italian government, according to Captain J. W. Batchelor, of the Liverpool Salvage Association.

C. W. BELDER HAS RETURNED FROM MENDENHALL, WHERE HE HAD A CONTRACT ON THE MENDENHALL BRIDGE.

C. W. Belder has returned from Mendenhall, where he had a contract on the Mendenhall bridge.