SEWARD MAN IS ON WAY SOUTH TO BECOME ACTOR WITH UNIVERSAL COMPANY

Aboard the steamer Alameda for the south is Joe Kacrosky, who for a number of years has been employed at Brown & Hawkins, at Seward. There perhaps is nothing strange in the single announcement of Mr. Kacrosky's trip, to the average person, but this party has been some actor. In fact he has signed an engagement with the Universal Film Company, now operating near Los Angeles, and no doubt the several Alaska films he is billed to appear in will be thrown shortly on the screens of the local houses.

PRIZES AWARDED
