

Chas. B. Rabson, of Atlin, was so upset by marriage that he went insane and wandered off into the wilderness, where he couldn't find himself, or let anyone else find him.

Oliver P. Hubbard, of Valdez, indorses Gov. Brady's statements as to Alaska's needs. We are unacquainted with Mr. Hubbard, but opine that he is a level-headed gentleman.

Pans running as high as $16 to the pan are being taken out on 7A Rhode Island Gulch, in the Rampart district. This gulch is said to be one of the richest ever discovered in Alaska.

The volunteer growth of wheat, oats and barley, where seed has been spilled along the military road in the Copper river valley, is said to be phenomenal, much of it being matured by the middle of August.

The Guide of Sept. 16th says that since the opening of navigation this season only $8,455,000 has passed thro' Skagway. Of this amount $500,000 came from the American Yukon and $175,000 from the Atlin district, leaving less than $8,000,000 for the famous Klondike camp.

Father Anatoly, a priest of the Greek Catholic church at Minneapolis, Minn., claims to have documentary proof that all the disputed territory on the Alaska boundary belongs to the United States, and has been summoned to Washington, D. C., to place his evidence before the proper authorities.

Mr. A. W. Tibbits, who discovered tin ore near Mt. Wrangel, located 54 claims on the lead. If his monuments marking the boundaries of each claim were of stone, and erected according to law, rolled into one, they would make a column in the neighborhood of 1728 feet in height. A good season's work for one prospector.
