

OF INTEREST

Capt. Keen, well known for the past forty years as a pilot in Alaskan waters, and at present acting in that capacity on the U. S. R. M. C. Rush, was recently married to Miss Clare who was in charge of the Peniel Children's Home at Juneau. Capt. and Mrs. Keen will make their home in Juneau. The Thlinget extends best wishes to the happy couple.

Mr. W. H. Loller, Secretary to Governor Clark came into Sitka on the Rush Nov. 17 and moved all the government property that has been stored in the Sheldon Ekson Museum to the warehouses on the government wharf.

Supt. F. J. Waldron of the native public schools was here two days inspecting the Sitka Native Schools.

Rev. A. P. Kashaveroff, for many years the priest in charge of St. Michael's Cathedral. Russo-Graeco Church at this place has been transferred to Jackson, Calif. A few evenings previous to his departure on the 18th, the native societies of his church tendered him a farewell reception Mrs. Kashaveroff with the children will remain here for a short time and later join her husband in their new home. Rev. Kashaveroff and his family will be greatly missed in Sitka.

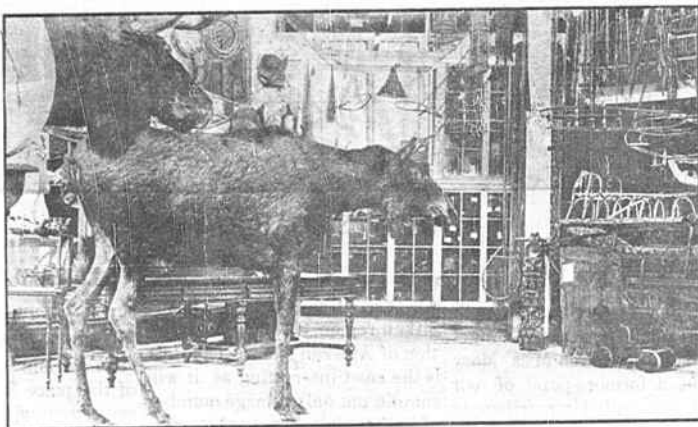

BUILDING NOTES

The sewer plan has been received and the work will be commenced at an early date.

The mains and returns for the heating and all roughing in work for plumbing in the large girls' building has been completed and all pipes tested to 120 pounds pressure.

The framing for the small girls' building is well under way. The contractor expects to have this building as well as that of the small boys covered in by the end of December.

All wiring for electric lights in the main building, and large boys' and large girls' buildings has been completed.

W. P. Mills Co. Inc.

General Merchandise
Indian Baskets and Curios
Alaska Postals
Sitka Alaska

The three largest buildings are completely covered in and two professional shinglers have begun work on the exterior walls.

The contractor hopes to have the foundation for the new laundry - heating plant boiler room building completed before the first of the New Year.