

Dr. and Mrs. Homer Cunningham of Whitworth College, Spokane, who will teach at the third annual Whitworth-Sheldon Jackson Summer Session to be held in Sitka on the Sheldon Jackson campus from June 14 to July 15, 1960.

Sunday and Monday
Take a wealthy porkpacker named "Pennypacker," add seventeen children (all his), throw in an outraged minister, a lovesick giant, a shocked spinster, a howling grandfather (also named "Pennypacker" and a porkpacker) and bring to a boil with a wife who wants to know where the extra nine kids came from, and you have a broad outline of the goings on in "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker."

Cast includes Clifton Webb, Dorothy McGuire, Charles Coburn, Jill St. John and Ron Ely.

Tuesday and Wednesday
"Naked Earth" provides rugged action, and a combination of exciting personalities, a fast-paced story and authentic backgrounds according to advance notices. Filmed entirely in Africa, the film stars Richard Todd and the beautiful French actress, Juliette Greco.

The picture was filmed against the wild and rugged grandeur of Murchison Falls National Game Reserve, Uganda, Africa, and along the banks of the great Lake Victoria, near Entebbe.

"Naked Earth" is the first of a double feature. The second, entitled "Laughing Annie" is in color and is supported by a good cast including Wendell Corey, Forrest Tucker and Margaret Lockwood.

Thursday and Friday
A stellar cast headed by Cornel Wilde, and including Michael Rennie, Debra Paget, John Derek, Raymond Massey, and with Yma Sumac tells of the life, the loves few and the adventures of Omar Khayyam.

The picture is in Technicolor and VistaVision. Added to that there are breath-taking sets; startling special effects; daring and beautiful costumes;

An adult elephant will consume 600 to 800 pounds of green fodder per day, if it is available.

scantily-clad A Kodiak Mirror ad gets results.

Saturday

Robby the Robot is undaunted by either shellfire or a flame thrower as he advances on an Army Nike missile base, providing one of the exciting sequences of "The Invisible Boy," science-fiction drama produced by Nicholas Nayfack, producer of the earlier "Forbidden Planet," in which the robot was first introduced.

Richard Evers plays the role of the youngster who is made invisible.
