Of This and That

By BETHA DIGREE

At last legislation in Juneau has ended for this year (unless, of course, a special session should be called) . . . Now we can all sleep more easily and not be wondering what additional scatter-brained ideas will be introduced.

It is possible, tho, that Henry Hedberg, labor lobbyist, will not relax too much as he seems rather angry because he did not get just what he ordered. The concern he expressed for the small business man comes a bit late, in our estimation. We doubt that he really cares what happens to any business man at any time, and we can feel no sympathy for him . . .

Wonder how soon the naughty people in jail will be given their vacations? Perhaps some of them will be permitted to go home in time to hunt for Easter eggs . . . How jolly for everyone!

BPW To Meet Monday, Apr. 4

The next business meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club will be held Monday, April 4, at the home of Mrs. Marge Knudsen, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Lillian Smith, club president, urges all members to attend the meeting as matters of importance will be discussed.

Mrs. McKechnie Honored At Lunch

Honored guest at the Officers Wives Club luncheon held March 10 was Mrs. Harriot McKechnie, wife of RADM Arnold W. McKechnie, Commander, Alaskan Sea Frontier/Commandant 17th Naval District, who will be leaving Kodiak soon.

Wives of District Intelligence and VP-2 Squadron officers were hostesses at the farewell luncheon, with Mrs. James M. Robertson acting as chairman. A St. Patrick's Day theme was carried out with the traditional decorations, with a dance program presented by the Misses Palmer, Richmond and Parrott.

The club president, Mrs. G. H. Carrithers, presented Mrs. McKechnie with a "Billiken," traditional good luck symbol of Alaska. Mrs. McKechnie responded with a short address in which she recalled many "fine memories and associations of Alaska."

Others to whom the club bade "Bon Adieu" were Mrs. H. C. Stirling, Mrs. G. I. Finch, Mrs. Sherman Black and Mrs. W. G. Dennis.

Others to whom the club bade the Mesdames Jack Hinckel, Merrill Coon, Robert Acheson, Emil Knudsen, Edward Getty, Coy Stockard, Bernard Steacey, Alf Madsen, Lou Veerman, Bruce Keers, Robert Johnson, John Gibbons and A. Holmes Johnson.

VFW Baby Show Set For April 17

The annual Baby Show sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars Katmai Post 7056, will be held at the high school auditorium at 2:00 p.m., Easter Sunday, April 17.

Children from babies-in-arms to 3 years of age (they must not have passed their third birthday) are eligible to be entered in the contest. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Rebekah Klockenbrink at 5482.

Entry blanks are available at Knudsen's, Knudsen's Outfitters and Wodlinger's Drug Store.

Mr. & Mrs. Cross Are New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cross arrived recently from Ent AFB, ADC, Colorado Springs, Colorado, to make their home at 1396 Maple. Cross is the Philco Station Manager at Chiniak AFB.

Al Hochberger Visits Anchorage

Bank of Kodiak vice president Al Hochberger left Thursday for Anchorage where he attended the first Board of Directors meeting of the newly merged National Bank of Alaska.

Hochberger is expected to return to Kodiak this weekend.

Poster Contest Winners Chosen

Winners of the Baby Show Poster Contest, sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars Katmai Post 7056, have been announced.

First place award of $5 was won by Virginia King, 8th grader. Marya Springhill, 7th grade pupil, was given second place and an award of $3, while winner of third place award of $2 went to Laue Earl.

A spokesman for the Auxiliary said that all entries were exceptionally good this year, and the best of any year.

Mrs. Reba Lund Dead In Accident

A former resident of Kodiak, Mrs. Reba Lund, 50, was struck by a station wagon in Seattle on the night of March 25 and fatally injured. The coroner's office said she died of a ruptured liver, ruptured lungs and multiple fractures.

The accident occurred in the south-bound lanes of Aurora Avenue. The driver of the station wagon said Mrs. Lund was running across the street when he saw her. His car skidded when he applied the brakes, and struck her. The driver, Ernest J. Laxird, 50, of Vancouver, B. C., was not held.

Mrs. Lund is survived by her husband, Herbert, and son, Pvt. Robin Lund, who is stationed with the Army in Virginia.

The Lunds lived on Kodiak Naval Station for several years while Mr. Lund was employed at the Public Works Carpenter Shop. They moved to Seattle about 5 years ago and Mr. Lund joined his father in the contracting business.

Naval Station Births

A daughter, Nanette, weighing 7 lbs. 8 ozs., was born on March 21 to Christine Irene and Joseph Peter Quartano, LTJG, USN.

LUCKY LUCY?

No! No rabbit's foot for her. She knows many cancers can be cured if found in time—so she gets a health checkup every year. She knows her dollars can help conquer cancer—so she gives generously to the American Cancer Society Crusade. Send your gift to your Unit of the AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

A daughter, Terri Ann, weighing 5 lbs. 3½ ozs., was born on March 22 to Ozella Marie and Edward Lee Hayes, DK2, USN.

A son, Richard Merrill, Jr., weighing 7 lbs. 7½ ozs., was born on March 23 to Winifred Louise and Richard Merrill Whitney, AC2, USN.

A daughter, Toni Marie, weighing 5 lbs. 1 oz., was born on March 23 to Arlene and Paul Richard Andrews, YN1, USN.

New Stewardesses

Four girls, Helen Mercado of Juneau, Alaska; Sharon Vout of San Mateo, Calif.; Margaret Flynn of Seattle; and Monica Shea of Tacoma, Wash.; have successfully completed their training as Pacific Northern Airlines stewardesses and are now flying PNA routes to Alaska, it was announced by John A. Cunningham, Vice President of Operations.

The Timid Soul

Government Booklet Features Salmon

The most unusual book on the current best seller list costs but fifteen cents. Equally surprising is the fact that, from opening word to happy ending, you, the American homemaker, are the heroine. Its author, long dedicated to presenting fact rather than fiction, is the United States Government. This latest Government booklet, called "Take a Can of Salmon," is a truthful "fish story" told to the housewife by Uncle Sam. There are beautiful color photographs to illustrate each of its sixteen pages of recipes which run the gamut from delicious dips through luncheon dishes, dinner dishes, casseroles and nourishing soups such as this chowder.

SALMON CHOWDER

1 pound can salmon	1/2 cup salmon liquid
1 chicken bouillon cube	1 pound can tomatoes
1 cup boiling water	1 can (8 oz.) whole kernel corn
1/2 cup chopped onion	1 cup sliced okra (optional)
1/2 cup chopped green pepper	1/2 teaspoon salt
1 clove garlic, finely chopped	1/4 teaspoon thyme
1/4 cup butter or other fat, melted	Dash pepper
1 whole bay leaf

Drain salmon, reserving liquid. Break salmon into large pieces. Dissolve bouillon cube in boiling water. Cook onion, green pepper and garlic in butter until tender. Combine all ingredients and cook for 15 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Remove bay leaf. Serves 6. To obtain a copy of "Take a Can of Salmon," send fifteen cents with your name and address to the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C.
