NG Armories Near Completion

JUNEAU (AP) — The National Guard said that work has been completed on all but six of the 48 armories being constructed in as many Alaska villages for units of Alaska's National Guard battalions.

Youth Camp In Session

Seventeen "Sally Peck" Guild girls attended the Baptist Church sponsored House Party at Woody Island July 22, 23 and 24. The House Party was planned and conducted by Mrs. Nadina Squartsoff Brown, one of the local Guild girls. She was assisted by Jerilynn Smith, president of the Kodiak Guild, and Miss Mary Niebergall, Guild chairman for Washington State.

On Tuesday, July 26, 10 more high school students joined the 13 Guild girls who remained at camp, and Senior camp program began. Miss Twila Bartz, Chicago, is camp director, Rev. Lewis White, pastor of Community Baptist Church, is camp pastor, and Mrs. Norman Smith, Ouzinkie, is camp teacher, craft director and counsellor.

Robert Arai of California and Clarence Brown, a member of the Naval Station band, are recreation directors. Mrs. Lewis White, Mrs. Nadina Brown and Rev. Norman Smith are counsellors. In charge of the dining room and kitchen are Mrs. Vernon Draper and Mrs. Gilbert Jarvela.

Senior camp closes at noon Friday, August 5, with the Junior Hi camp beginning at noon Saturday, August 6. There is still time to register for the Junior Hi camp. Anyone wishing to do so may call Miss Marlin, phone 2572, or go to the church between the hours of 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Saturday, July 30, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday or Friday, August 1, 2, 4 and 5. $16.00 covers all costs for this LUMUMBA MEETS HAMMARSKJOLD — Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba, left, and Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold of the United Nations shake hands at U. N. headquarters in New York City Sunday after a conference lasting more than two and a half hours. The Congo premier said he is on a mission to win friends and finances for his strife-torn land.
