

Basketball Season Tickets Go On Sale

The Kodiak high school basketball team will begin its annual drive to sell season tickets Saturday, September 24. Members of the team and cheerleaders will participate in the drive. The adult tickets will sell for $5.00 each while the student cards will sell for $2.50.

These tickets will be good for all games except for those with visiting high schools. Holders of season tickets will be given a 50 per cent discount on the purchase of tickets to these games. Approximately 20 games will be played this season with Palmer, Seward, and Adak high schools expected to play here during the season.

Efforts will be made to get the Class "B" tournament for this year and holders of season tickets will get a discount on these tickets if the school is able to secure the tourney.

Cubs Meet Tonight

Cub Scouts will meet at the Kodiak high school gym tonight (Friday), with the meeting beginning at 7:30.

Indian dances will be given by members of the Order of the Arrow. Pack reorganization will be discussed.

A paper drive has been announced by the group which will be held Saturday, October 8.

NO TOWING ALLOWED—DISMANTLING ONLY

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—Most private parking lot owners are satisfied to have intruders' cars towed away. But members of Sigma Chi and Alpha Delta Chi fraternities at the University of Michigan will inflict more severe punishment.

At the entrance to the parking lot they share, a large sign warns: "Unauthorized cars will be dismantled."

Naval Station Births

A son, James Ronald, weighing 6 lbs. 13 ozs., was born on September 15 to Elvina Mae and James Poulos Jr., SP2, USN.

Thanks Expressed; Boat Goes on Block

We would like to express our thanks to the Navy, Coast Guard, local organizations, and individual persons who willingly devoted their time and efforts in searching for us while we were adrift.

Signed:

Robert L. Hoylman
Louis H. Sparks
Gary S. Crawford

P. S.—For sale: one converted 18-ft. whaleboat, sleeps two.
