

SEASON'S GREETINGS

Fashion Heights Dress Shop

Dear Mr. Santa Claus

Editor's Note: The following letter to Santa was written by Lois Weekes in 1951 for the San Antonio Express. Lois is now Mrs. Stuart Beck of Wichita Falls, Tex., and mails letters for her own two little girls, but her letter has become a favorite with many people throughout Texas.

Dear Mr. Claus: I hope you will remember me,

Santa. It's been a long time. You'd have to blow the dust away to look up my name in your files.

The last time I wrote you, I spelled bicycle with a K . . . and I've been singing "Jingle Bells" an octave lower for several seasons now. My stocking size and my Christmas list have changed considerably . . . and I now recognize the value of a little mistletoe in the decor.

It isn't that I've underestimated you through the years, Mr. C. or forgotten our relationship. I've been giving your letters to my father to mail and it's worked out beautifully since the Christmas he inquired as to my knowledge of your identity. My affirmative answer brought a "well, start being a little nicer to ME then" from him. And we laughed, and my mother cried.

I still believe in you, you see, and I've followed your activities each

Yuletide in the nation's press. I know you don't have time to read all the papers, but December's headlines . . . lots of them . . . belong to you. Annually, you crowd out the day-by-day boys who fade from year to year.

Although this is more a delayed "thank you" for other Christmases than a suggested shopping list, there are a few things I'd like when you rein in the reindeer at my house this year.
