PT. ARTHUR MAY BE WON

Persistent rumors from everywhere say that Japanese have captured Russian stronghold.

[Special Dispatch to the Daily Alaskan.]

London, March 3.—Persistent rumors that Port Arthur has fallen are coming from all quarters, and they are furnishing the big stories for the early editions of the afternoon papers. Thus far the papers have been unable to get a confirmation of the report from the front. While all the papers without exception are featuring the reports, they are handling the story with the greatest caution, and are careful to characterize the story as based on unconfirmed rumors.

PEOPLE KNOW NOTHING OF WAR

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.]

Vancouver, B. C., March 3.—The officers of the Trans-Pacific liner Empress of India, which has just arrived from Yokohama, says that it is absolutely impossible to get any war news in Japan. They say the people know nothing of what is taking place on the continent. All they can say is Japan is winning, and they have the government's word for that. The government officials regularly give the assurance that "all's well." The assurance is relied upon implicitly by the people.

CHINA MASSING TROOPS ON FRONTIER

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.]

London, March 3.—Reports from the far east are to the effect that the Chinese are massing troops on the Manchurian frontier. The movement has been in progress for some time, but has become particularly noticeable during the last few days.

FRENCH ALARMED AT ACTION OF CHINA

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.]

New York, March 3.—A dispatch from Paris says the French government is very much exercised over the movement of Chinese troops to the Manchurian frontier. The officials of the French government fear that Japan may follow the domination of Korea by coaxing or forcing China to be the third party in a combination of the yellow peoples.

Soap for all purposes

Perhaps there is no article for toilet use which requires greater care in the selection than soap. Unless its ingredients are pure it causes much trouble to delicate skin.

THE LINE OF SOAPS handled here is the finest in the city. Every cake of soap in it is good soap.

Our Bono Dermal Toilet Soap at 25c is especially adapted and recommended for the Alaska climate. See our window.
