Japs Furiously Attack Vladivostock

Fleet of five battleships and two cruisers bombard Russia's Siberian seaport. No response is made.

(Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.)

Vladivostock, March 8—This place was bombarded by five battleships and two cruisers of the Japanese fleet today. The firing was all done at long range, about five and a half miles. But little damage was done. Many of the Japanese shells failed to explode. The Russian forts did not return the fire. The attack was apparently made for the purpose of ascertaining the location of the forts, also to see if the Russian fleet was in the harbor of Vladivostock.

ATTACK ON VLADIVOSTOCK CONFIRMED

(Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.)

St. Petersburg, March 8—Admiral Alexieff has telegraphed to the czar from Mulden as follows: "Supplementing my previous telegram, I beg to say that five out of seven of the enemy's ships opened fire on forts Suvaroff and Lunatch, on the towns and on roadstead and along the valley of the river Obyarioniy. No losses on the batteries or the fortifications."

RUSSIA SEEKS CHINA'S AID IN MANCHURIA

(Special Dispatch to the Daily Alaskan.)

New York, March 8—The New York Herald's London correspondent says: "It is reported here that Russia is pressing China to make all the territory west of the Lio-ho river neutral. Japan remains apparently calm in spite of Russia's efforts because she has made the reservation that should Russia be allowed to obtain this advantage Japan will take any portion of the Chinese territory which is strategically necessary for her operations against Russia and Russian arms."

AMERICANS AFTER RICH PRIZES

(Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.)

St. Petersburg, March 8—The Russian authorities have been approached, indirectly, by American shipping firms desiring authority to fit out privateers to prey upon Japanese (Continued on Last Page.)
