FEELING MORE FRIENDLY FOR HEARST SHUT DOWN

Russians better satisfied with American attitude since publication of President Roosevelt's neutrality proclamation.

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.]

Washington, March 14—The publication of President Roosevelt's neutrality proclamation has greatly calmed the Russian feeling toward Americans, and consequently reduced the tension that has characterized the relations between the two countries.

The Russian press now exhibits a much more friendly attitude towards the United States.

JAPS TRY TO BLOCKADE PORT ARTHUR

[Special Dispatch to the Daily Alaskan.]

London, March 14—The recent attacks on Port Arthur are the result of strenuous efforts on the part of the Japanese to secure an effectual blockade of that port. The Japanese plan of campaign may be interfered with as long as Russia can get an effective fleet out of the harbor at Port Arthur. The Japanese believe that once the port can be blockaded they could hold the fleet blockaded with a few ships, and then release the balance of the fleet for use elsewhere. There will be no let up at Port Arthur until the desired results shall be obtained.

BEST OFFICERS IN WORLD

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.]

New York, March 14—War experts who have been watching the Japanese movements declare the Mikado's generals to be the most expert military commanders in the world, excepting none.

DENMARK FEARS GENERAL WAR

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.]

Copenhagen, March 14—Denmark is rapidly getting on a war footing. The feeling that the Japanese-Russian war is likely to become world wide is increasing, and Denmark is preparing for all emergencies in case of hasty action. The city of Copenhagen is thoroughly garrisoned as are other large towns in the country.
