JAPAN'S FLEET ATTACKS ENEMY

Port Arthur bombarded all day and furious naval engagement is fought outside the harbor. Russians lose battleship. Japan's damage not known.

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.]

Tokio, March 24.—A dispatch received from Wuji says the Japanese fleet made another attack on Port Arthur March 18. They bombarded all day, early and late, the defenses to the port.

The Japanese ships also fought a furious engagement with the Russian fleet outside the harbor, destroying one Russian battleship. Seven Japanese casualties were reported, but there is no information at hand concerning the Japanese fleet's condition. The navy department is not advised any further as to this engagement but it evidently expects to hear pleasant news.

RUSSIA SUSTAINS SEVERE DEFEAT ON LAND

Land forces of two countries come together on banks of Yalu river near Wiju and Japs get a victory.

[Special Dispatch to the Daily Alaskan.]

Vancouver, March 24—News has been received here today that the Russians are reported to have lost 600 men killed, wounded and prisoners in a sharp encounter with the Japanese troops at Chyong Sysng on the Yalu river, near Wiju. The Japanese scored a decisive victory.

NOT GUILTY

Missionary Says Hereros Are Not Murderers.

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.] Berlin, March 24.—A missionary in Southwest Africa has written a letter defending the Hereros against the charges of massacring women and children and indiscriminate butchery. He gives the names of a number of women that have been reported as killed, but who are still alive, although Hereros had an opportunity to murder them.
