ADMITTED THAT RUSSIA IS TO SAVE IT SKAGWAY TO HAVE ANOTHER READY FOR PEACE STEAMSHIP LINE

Czar Would Like to Resume Negotiations With Japan and Is Willing to Accept Terms Previously Refused

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.] Paris, April 22.—It is confidently asserted in diplomatic circles that the Russians are now willing to resume negotiations that were broken off by the Japanese owing to the non-delivery of the last Russian note by Alexieff. It is conceded that Russia would consent to terms that were positively declined in the past. It is understood that King Edward has been entrusted with the terms which Russia will be willing to accept. They will not be made public unless negotiations should be formally resumed.

Bitter Feelings Against Americans and British
Berlin, April 22.—A dispatch from Harbin, Manchuria, says: "Great bitterness has been aroused throughout Manchuria against the Americans and British, because it is generally believed that their vessels took part in the bombardment of Port Arthur under the Japanese flag. The feeling is so strong that Americans and British are not safe anywhere in Manchuria. A man named Reilly, an American, and several others, including a man named Davidson, a Canadian, have disappeared. The authorities are looking for them."

"It is reported that an Englishman was arrested at Port Arthur as a spy not long ago and that he was taken to Mukden later and hanged."
Alexieff Has Completely Collapsed
Washington, April 22.—Announcement has been received from St. Petersburg of the withdrawal of Vice-roy Alexieff from the direction of affairs in the far east.

Together with the announcement of the withdrawal of Alexieff comes the story of the rise and complete fall of the radical element in Russia, headed by Alexieff and Bobrozoff. The news was received with much interest in official circles here.

Bayan Not Damaged
Port Arthur, April 22.—The cruiser Bayan has suffered no damage from the hall of shells that were poured upon her from the Japanese warships when she went to the assistance of the Russian torpedo boat destroyers just previous to the sinking of the Petropaulovisk.

No Change at Port Arthur
Port Arthur, April 22.—The situation here remains unchanged. There are no signs of the enemy's transports off the coast any place.

Seattle Company May Raise Ship at Tacoma

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.] Tacoma, April 22.—The Seattle Salvage Company proposes raising the Adalina, the ship which turned turtle in this harbor several years ago with a valuable cargo on board. The captain and many of the crew of the Adalina were drowned.
