REVISE THE WAR MAP

If reports are true General Kuro-patkin is not being permitted to remain inactive as he stated he intended doing until July. As there are reports of heavy cannonading in the neighborhood of Port Arthur, "Old Pat" is probably doing some lively foot work instead of taking a lay off.—Whitehorse Star.

The war editor of the Whitehorse Star should revise his war map. If he will examine the dispatches that have been published in his paper he will discover that Gen. Kuro-patkin is at Mukden, 250 miles North of Port Arthur at which place Gen. Stoessel is besieged.

Such activity as that displayed by the chamber of commerce, in its efforts to put Skagway in such a position that it will not be at the mercy of the people who are operating the present water system in this city, cannot help but result in the relief desired.

That strong talk backed up by those war ships at Tangier seems to have had the desired effect upon the sultan of Morocco.

The movement among the stores to close at 5 o'clock in the evening is deserving of encouragement.

CAN'T BE SEPARATED

Some People Have Learned How to Get Rid of Both

Backache and kidney ache are twin brothers. You can't separate them. And you can't get rid of the back ache until you cure the kidney ache.

If the kidneys are well and strong, the rest of the system is pretty sure to be in vigorous health.

Doan's Kidney Pills make strong, healthy kidneys.

H. B. McCarver, of 201 Cherry street, Portland, Oregon, inspector of freight for the Trans-Continental Company, a man who is very well known among the railroaders of the coast, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are among the few patent remedies which do all that is claimed for them, and they have my thorough confidence. I used them for backache and other very marked symptoms of kidney trouble which had annoyed me for months. I think a cold was responsible for the whole trouble. It seemed to settle in my kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills rooted it out. It is several months since I used them and up to date there has been no recurrence of the trouble. I have recommended them to a number of the boys about the freight house and I know if they gave them a fair trial they certainly must have been pleased with the results."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

Building a House.

In building a house every layer of brick is termed a "course." It is usual to place in the walls upright and horizontal damp proof courses. These ought to be composed of some substance that water cannot penetrate. In this way the walls are mapped out into squares, and the accidental dampening of any one square cannot affect the others. Unfortunately, some builders study economy unduly, and their damp proof courses act as effectively as a layer of wet sea sand. Those who intend having a house built should regard the genuineness of the measures adopted to prevent damp as of the very first importance.

Drawing the Disease Out.

The Chinese have a curious custom of trying to cure a sick man. A friend of the patient obtains a straight branch with a few leaves and twigs at the end. On this he hangs a mirror of polished steel, and under that one of the sick man's coats. Then he goes for a short walk, a priest in the meantime performing a ceremony. The coat being carried in this way, is supposed to draw the disease from the sufferer.

Wives of Russian Priests.

A White Russian priest must be married, but he cannot marry a second time. If his wife dies he must enter a monastery. Hence the Russians tell many stories of the extraordinary means to which the priests resort in guarding the health of their wives. If the priest's consort sneezes, a mild panic ensues in the household.—World's Work.

Conflicting Considerations.

"Don't you sometimes think you ought to give more heed to what posterity will think of you?"
"My dear sir," answered Senator Sorghum, "It's risky. You are in danger of letting it absorb your attention and forgetting what the assessor and the voters and the political bosses may think of you."—Washington Star.

What She Wore.

Travers—There goes Peterby's wife. He's the fellow I played poker with the other night. Jagway—She looks pretty well dressed. Travers—She ought to be. She's got on my last week's salary.

The Difference.

One—Are you certain that you love the girl? Tither—Certain? Why, I can't sleep nights for thinking about her. One—That's odd. I get the same effect from my tailor's bills.—Judge.

A Dead Circus.

Grandpa—Well, Sammy, where have you been today? Sammy (just back from the Natural History museum)—Oh, we've had a fine time, grandpa. We've been to a dead circus.
