Assassin of Von Plehve Resented Friend's Treatment

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.]
St. Petersburg, Aug. 5.—The assassin of Minister von Plehve is said to have made a partial confession before his death. He declared at one time he was a school teacher in a rural district. He was greatly interested in Zemstov, for the curtailment of whose powers he blamed the dead minister. He absolutely refused to disclose his name. Watch was kept over the assassin day and night in the belief he would betray himself in his sleep, but it is thought he did not implicate anyone other than himself.

Kuroki defeats Kuropatkin at battle of Simoncheng and captures Haicheng. Russian army almost completely surrounded.

[Special Dispatches to the Daily Alaskan.]

Tokio, August 5.—The Japanese are the complete victors in the battle of Simoncheng, which waged with terrible fury several days ago on the outskirts of Haicheng. The battle is over at that point and the victorious Japanese has occupied Haicheng, which served as one of the bases for Russian operations for so long. The Japanese are now crowding troops to the front to reinforce those who are surrounding Gen. Kuropatkin's positions.

At the war office today the following statement was made: "All the outlying Russian positions have been taken and the great day for which the Japanese for so long a time have hoped is here, when Kuropatkin is compelled to accept battle, to surrender his army or to be annihilated. Even a retreat from his present position would have to be between two powerful Japanese armies, which could strike him at will.

LINES CLOSING AROUND KUROPATKIN

Newchwang, August 5.—The Japanese are closing in on the army of Gen. Kuropatkin with relentless force. Gen. Kuroki is behind him with 16,000 men, Gen. Oku with 50,000 men in his front, and Gen. Nodfu with 50,000 more is flanking the Russians on the left. All these forces are under the supreme command of Gen. Kuroki, who will bend all his energies to crush the Russian forces. Still another army is on the way to join the forces that confront Kuropatkin and with it are the military attaches and the newspaper correspondents who are going to the front to witness the battle that it is believed will be the most awful of modern times.

CIVILIANS MUST GO

St. Petersburg, August 5.—Gen. Kuropatkin has ordered the removal of all useless civilians from Harbin in order to provide the greatest possible winter quarters for the army.

JAPANESE LOSE A CRUISER

Rome, August 5.—Dispatches received here from Tokio state that the Japanese cruiser Kasaga has been sunk.

Troops Prevent Merchants From Opening Stores and Americans are Stoned By Angered Populace--Warships Sail

[Special Dispatch to Daily Alaskan.]
Port au Prince, Aug. 5.—This city is in a state of great disorder. Bands of soldiers are throwing stones to prevent the Syrians from reopening their stores. The Americans have hoisted the Stars and Stripes over their residences and have sought refuge at the American legation in carriages, flying American flags, pursued by the populace throwing stones. The city authorities are helpless. The American government will send warships from the South Atlantic and a squadron to protect American interests.
