FAIRBANKS MAY HAVE SOLDIERS

According to advices received in the last mail to come up the Yukon the government may send soldiers from Fort Gibbon to Fairbanks. This action if it shall be taken, it is said, will be the result of the robberies that took place at Fairbanks just prior to the sailing of the last steamer and the knowledge that a bad gang of toughs are in that camp.
It was reported some time ago that an effort was being made by the authorities to get the soldiers for the big camp, and the report now is that they were getting ready to go.

Miss Waters Lost Art Collection

According to the Dawson News, Miss Emily Waters, formerly of Syracuse, N. Y., and who resided at Skagway for a long time, artist and writer, lost all her personal effects at the Cecil hotel fire. The loss included a large art collection and a great deal of her manuscript. She was a guest at the Flannery hotel.

River Closes Earlier at Fairbanks

The Yukon river, it is said, closes two weeks earlier at Fairbanks than at Dawson. Last year it closed there October 10, which was three weeks ahead of the closing at the Klondike city.
