Republicans Will Oust Adams

[Special Dispatches to Daily Alaskan.] Denver, Dec. 27.—The republicans have completed all the plans to contest the election of Alva Adams, according to the decisions of the supreme court, will be republican. If all those returns which the supreme court has decided to be frauds are thrown out, it will elect Peabody. On the face of the returns Adams is elected and the legislature is democratic. There will probably be two governments in the state, with two legislatures and two governors.

NO REQUISITION FOR DR. CHADWICK

[Special Dispatches to Daily Alaskan.] Albany, N. Y., Dec. 27.—Gov. Odell refuses to grant a requisition for the arrest of Dr. Leroy Chadwick, charged with forgery in connection with the cases against his wife, on the ground that no evidence had been produced that he was in the state of Ohio at the time of the alleged forgery.

O'BRIEN WINS DIAMOND RING

M. C. O'Brien, mayor of Clifton, won the diamond ring which was given away by H. B. Kirsse Christmas Eve. The drawing took place at 11 p. m. and Mrs. C. P. Thompson was made the judge. She decided that the 10th number drawn out would win the ring and appointed Dr. J. P. Brawand, S. A. Speedy and J. C. Fix to keep tally. Miss Nellie McGee drew the numbers and the 10th was N. 888, held by M. C. O'Brien, who was awarded the ring.
