

PRINTERS STRIKE FOR AN EIGHT HOUR DAY

Walk out Ordered by the Men Behind the Cases who Want Shorter Hours Claim The Action was Last Resort

(Special dispatch to the Daily Alaskan.) Chicago, Sept. 2.—What may be one of the biggest strikes in the history of the country was inaugurated today when the printers ordered a strike for an eight-hour day. The matter has been under consideration for some time. The printers have done their best to secure the shorter day without a strike for many years. It has been refused them so often that it has been concluded that the only way to get it is to strike for it.

Humboldt Walter Jumps Overboard

Thomas Sidworth, a waiter on the Humboldt, committed suicide by jumping overboard from the ship while she was in Seymour narrows on the north-bound trip. The act was not detected until the ship had passed the place of the tragedy some distance and the tide was running so swift that it was impossible to turn about. It is believed Sidworth was suffering from insanity.
