No Merchant in Alaska

has ever before carried such an assortment of

FLOOR COVERINGS

as we now have in stock. We have

New Rugs New Mattings New Linoleums

There is a strong feeling just now, in favor of covering floors with rugs instead of carpets, we have anticipated a big demand for them, by buying a big stock.

They come in all the popular qualities, Body Brussels, Tapestry Brussels, Axminsters, Wilton Velvets, etc. and sizes 7x9, 8-3x10-6, 9x10-6 and 9x12 sizes to fit any room.

For the bedroom we can offer you Japanese Straw Mattings, American Fibre Mattings, Fibre Rugs and Crex Rugs.

For your Kitchen we can show you a stock of Linoleums, 6 feet wide and 12 feet wide, in printed, inlaid and granite patterns, that is unsurpassed by any one.

North, Condensed.

Information for Everybody.

San Francisco will send traveling men to Alaska.

The winter population of Candler includes 60 ladies and three babies.

Merwin, a Dawson pioneer, has struck dollar diggings on Duncan creek.

Two yards of dirt taken from the fourth beach line at Nome produced $25 when washed.

The ice went out of the river in front of Whitehorse Friday morning, April 24, at 10 o'clock.

The baseball season opened in Skagway with a contest between the "A. B.s" and the South Paws.

Seward is to have a shingle mill and the shingles are to be made out of spruce and cottonwood.

Frank Manley will employ 1,000 men working for him in his interests in the Baker district. Manley took out more than a half million last year.

Thomas Martin, a member of the Nome miners' union, has been adjudged insane and will be taken to the Mt. Tabor, Ore., sanitarium.

The date of the Spring break-up of the river ice at Fairbanks for the past four years has been as follows: 1904, May 7th; 1905, May 3d; 1906, April 30th; 1907, April 30th.

Thousands of cords of wood have been cut up the Klondike river this winter and will be floated down and piled on the banks for the use of the dredges to be operated by the Guggenheims.

The growth of the Tanana has been so rapid that it is beyond the range of possibilities for the Road Commission to supply the roads and trails that have been petitioned for by the owners of outlying properties.

The Canadian Pacific Railroad has declared for an open shop on the railroad and in all their shops. As a result a strike is threatened in all departments. The declaration has created a sensation.

O. J. Friedsen, a Norwegian hunter and explorer, will try to reach the North Pole this summer by way of Dawson. Dependence will mainly be placed in dog teams.

According to Prof. C. C. Georgeson, special agent of the department of agriculture, the experiment of placing Galloway cattle on Kodiak island has so far proved successful.

Jens Nelson is the third man in as many years to lose his life in the attempt to navigate a skiff from Wrangell to the A. P. A. cannery, about a mile and a half distant, while illuminated with a brilliant jag.

Edward J. Knapp received $250 from the government for reporting that the Str. Corwin, in 1906, carried explosives along with her passengers and mail. The amount when received he devoted to public charity at Nome.

At Dawson, the Yukon Mill, Joe Burke proprietor, has bought out all of its competitors in the lumber business, and the price of lumber has advanced from 10 to 15 per cent. The new quotations are $60 to $75 per 1,000 feet.

On account of the depredations of dogs, the Whitehorse Stroller is led to make the statement that "the only safe way to keep chickens in this country is in cold storage. We had one not long ago that had been here ten years and no dog in the neighborhood would dare tackle it."

Report has it that a man named Newton has secured a franchise for the building of a railway from Haines Mission, on Lynn canal, up the Porcupine valley through Pleasant Camp, along the Jack Dalton trail and into the copper fields at the head of White river and elsewhere in the Yukon.

Jack Smith and associates, of Katalla, Alaska, have secured the concessions for the Klondike attraction during the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition and will erect one of the largest buildings on the Pay Streak. The Klondike show will represent the early life in the North during the rush to the gold country. An effort will be made to reproduce the manner of living of the early Alaska pioneers and to give the scenes that were found in the early days of the Klondike.
