

THE LOCAL FIELD.

N. J. Emery, of Seattle, is in town. Bill Lutz is clerking at the Phoenix. Governor Clark visited Douglas yesterday.

Mr. G. A. Hubbell went to Skagway Friday on the Seattle.

Mrs. J. G. Zimmerman and son have returned from Tenakee.

Herb Conway went north on the Seattle bound for Fairbanks.

Charlie Gall and Leo Young have returned from an outing at Tenakee.

Miss Ruby Johnson left last week on the Seattle for a visit to California.

Lumber is being hauled for the new cottage to be built by Jerry Cashen.

There will be a band concert at the Treadwell Club next Saturday night.

Charlie Stephens has sold out his saloon on Front street to Jess Peyser.

Window screens, screen cloth and chicken netting can be had at Jensen's.

Get a Kodak at Andrews' studio and learn to take pictures. We will show you.

Guy Smith has gone to the Sound on business—we are unable to state what kind.

The big freighter Latouche is expected hourly with coal for the city dock.

The May Roberts Company will present "The College Girl" at the Lyric tonight.

The foundation piers are in place for Joe Riedi's new building on Third street.

James Cottrell says that he expects his wife from the states in the near future.

Albio Baritello and Paul Bloedhorn made the round trip to Skagway on the Humboldt.

The Lyric Orchestra will give a dance tomorrow evening immediately after the movies.

Ed Andrews, photographer, has hoisted a new awning in front of his shadow shop.

John Feusi has a bunch of men employed making improvements to his store building.

Sprinkling cans, garden hose and all that goes to beautify the garden, for sale at Jensen's.

Harold Miller returned to Douglas on the Humboldt, after an absence of about three years.

Gus Grundler has a gang of men clearing the ground for his new building on Third street.

Wm. Lutz came up on the Seattle and went on to Whitehorse to play ball with the insurgents.

Muresco — Muresco — Muresco—the only wall finish—in all colors at Jensen's Hardware store.

Friday is souvenir night at the Lyric for the first twenty-five ladies buying twenty-five cent tickets.

H. A. Dahl, captain of the Treadwell ball team, won the throwing contest at the Whitehorse celebration.

George Bach arrived on the Humboldt from the States. His family is now located at Portland, Ore.

J. E. Davis, a shift boss at the Perseverance mine back of Juneau, met an accidental death last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Museth and daughter, Nora, left on the Seattle for a visit at Ketchikan and Seattle.

Clothes baskets, cheap camping baskets, wringers, washboards, boilers, tubs, etc., can be had at Jensen's.

Just arrived—a large stock of Eastman Kodaks and supplies at Ed Andrews' studio. Everything sold at catalog prices.

All who are interested in the matter of a Fourth of July celebration in Douglas are requested to meet at the Natatorium Friday night.

Frankie Bach, who returned on the Humboldt from a visit with his sister near Seattle, says that he is mighty glad to get back to Douglas.

The Seattle P. I. of May 28 announces the marriage of Mr. Ray Richardson and Miss Grace Swihart. Douglas folks will be interested in this.

Ed Andrews, the photographer, will give away a complete kodak outfit to the holder of the lucky coupon at the Lyric theatre Friday night, June 7th.

Deputy Marshal W. D. MacMillan, his wife and children, his father, mother and sister, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Coster left yesterday for an outing at Tenakee. They will be absent several weeks.

The Japan current, which is said to be responsible for all the good weather, has been acting queer for the past week. The days have been cold and wet. It is warmer today and perhaps the J. C. is back on the job.

A. Hayman has given up his work on this side and moved to Juneau the early part of the week.

Don't forget that this is Wednesday, the evening of one of the popular Club dances.

James Stevenson left recently for Berners bay, where he has accepted employment.

Spiro Orfanos arrived on the Dolphin from Oakland, Calif., to spend the summer visiting with his brother, Denny Orfanos.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Murphy and children are returning home on the Spokane, after spending the past two months visiting with friends and relatives in Denver, Colo., and Grand Rapids, Mich.

Will Taylor resigned his position at the foundry and left for a visit with his parents in Clarkston, Wn.

Foreman John Richards received word Monday that his wife was very ill. He left on the Dolphin enroute to Ashland, Oregon, where his family is residing.

Mark Smith, the foundry foreman, was a southbound passenger on the Dolphin. Mr. Smith is the delegate from the Mason's Lodge to Seattle.

Al Libbrecht is building a cottage near the Bear's Nest mill. He began work on it last week.

The pupils of the Mexican school were unable to have their picnic at Sheep creek last Friday on account of the stormy weather, but plan to have it the first pleasant day.

William Stafford left for the North a few days ago and expects to locate at Carcross, Y. T.

Foreman Nels Johnson and family have gone out to Warm Springs for awhile for the benefit of Mr. Johnson's health.

John R. Begg and George Morrison, friends of Alex Kiloh, arrived from Scotland on the last trip of the Jefferson.

Charles Stites and Leo Young are planning to take a vacation very shortly. They expect to spend the time in touring around.

C. R. Johnson was a California arrival on the City of Seattle last Friday.

George Moody and his wife left on the Dolphin for a visit in Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Haigler will occupy the Moody residence during their absence.

The May Roberts Company played to good houses at the Lyric last Friday and Saturday nights, and the Ethel Tucker Company did as well on Thursday night.

Mrs. Lena Davis, a socialist orator sent out by the national management is headed for Southeastern Alaska to win votes for the socialist candidate for delegate.

Miss Agnes Patterson celebrated her 10th birthday yesterday by entertaining a lot of her little friends at an apron party. Delicious refreshments were served, and even the News force was treated to a generous sample.

For sale—137 acres good water front farm land on Puget sound. Will cut into smaller tracts if desired. Easy terms at half the price others are receiving for adjoining lands. See N. J. Emory, Sans Souci hotel, Douglas.

All members of North Star Lodge No. 2, K. of P., are requested to attend the meeting Thursday night, when the work that has been delayed by the carnival and Memorial Day will be taken up.

The gasoline tug Alexander Jr. arrived from T harbor last night with Gus Olson, who is suffering from paralysis. Just as she reached the city float, fire broke out on the boat and threatened for a time to destroy it. Quick, hard work saved it, but the after cabin is badly charred.

Albio Baritello, Charlie Stephens and Wm. Halvor returned last Thursday from a tour among the islands. They were brown and hearty. Mr. Baritello brought three fine bear skins with him which he allows the boys to inspect and admire the silky softness of the fur. There is no charge.

SING SOME SONGS.—The Douglas Civic Improvement Club will meet at the school house tomorrow (Thursday) evening. All members are requested to be present, and all women who are not members, but are interested in the cause, are invited to attend. The object of this meeting is to practice singing, and all who attend are requested to bring any books they may have containing the good, old-fashioned songs from "Yankee Doodle" to the "Star Spangled Banner."

FRIDAY SURPRISE SALE

GREATEST SILK SENSATION OF THE YEAR

One Thousand Yards of Messaline, Taffeta and Jacquard Silks in plain and fancy colors, on sale one week only, starting Friday, June 7th:

$1.50 a yard values at $1.00	65c a yard values at 40c
1.25 a yard values at 90c	35c a yard values at 25c
1.00 a yard values at 50c	Suesine Silks - - - - 25c

The Store that Saves You Money

P. H. FOX

DOUGLAS - - - - ALASKA

B. M. BEHREND'S, BANKER,

JUNEAU, ALASKA

Foreign Exchange Issued Oldest Bank in Alaska

INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS DEPOSITS.

Foreign and Domestic Woolens in Stock

F. WOLLAND

MERCHANT TAILOR

JUNEAU, ALASKA

E. M. Peters

PLUMBING
STEAM FITTING
SHEET METAL
WORK

Jobbing, all kinds of Repair and Machine Work, Phonographs and Sewing Machines Repaired.
GAS ENGINE REPAIRING
Front Street, near Ball Park, Douglas

PAUL BLOEDHORN

JEWELER
AND WATCHMAKER

DOUGLAS - - - - ALASKA

Waltham, Elgin and Hamilton Watches
Jewelry in Solid Gold and Gold Filled

A fine selection in Nugget Jewelry, Alaska Rings and Souvenir Spoons

CUT GLASS AND SILVERWARE

Just Received—Rogers' 1847 KNIVES, FORKS & SPOONS

Repairing a Specialty UNDER GUARANTEE

PAUL BLOEDHORN

ALASKA JEWELRY CO. Douglas

For Watch and Jewelry Repairing

The Island Hotel

ALBIO BARITELLO, PROPRIETOR

Best Grades Wines, Liquors, and Cigars
NO INFERIOR BRANDS

Family Trade Solicited—Free Delivery FRONT ST., DOUGLAS

What your Tailor?

When we tell you that it's time to order Spring and Summer clothes, we aren't telling you anything original, but when you let us show you the new woolens and fashions from Ed. V. Price & Co. MERCHANT TAILORS, CHICAGO you'll see everything original that will be worn by the best dressed men in the entire country. It doesn't cost as much as you might expect, to have us take your measure and deliver the finest custom tailoring obtainable.

ROGERS = Douglas