The steamer Al-Ki is due today from the Sound.

The Alaska Steamship company yesterday moved its office to 214 Broadway.

The steamers Rosalie and Fees did not sail today. They waited for the train from the interior. They sail today.

The regular meeting of the Hook & Ladder company will be held at 8 o'clock tonight.

Judge Schilbred and others were yesterday engaged collecting contributions to have the man reported ill in a cabin at White Pass brought to the city and cared for in a hospital. The railroad company donated transportation. It is said the man will not allow anyone to enter his cabin, and must be insane.

Mr. H. Shattuck, agent for the Alaska Steamship company in Juneau, who arrived on the Rosalie for a short business trip, will return on the Rosalie. Mr. Shattuck is always welcomed in Skagway by his many friends.

GOOD COFFEE.

The Proof of Good Coffee is in the Drinking Thereof.

There is nothing too good for Alaskians, and the taste of the residents is as highly educated as anywhere. Our patrons represent people from every state in the union and each demands as near as can be found, goods "he used to get at home." Catering to this element is our specialty, and we try to give them "what they want." In no article are they as particular as in coffee, and we find more general satisfaction, less complaint and better results with our high grade coffee than anything we can get. We have just received a big shipment of Jas. Heekin's Cincinnati celebrated coffees.

We want your trade on those goods and will make a special sale this week on the following brands:

Heekin's special blend, per pound, .35
 " blanca " per pound, .40
 " Kalif Mocha and Java, per pound, .40
 " Colma Mocha and Java, per pound, .40
 " Celebrated Mocha and Java, per pound, .50

Also slaughtering prices on ladies' and men's and children's shoes before the holidays.

All Delivery free of charge.

Banquet Date Changed.
 The date for holding the first annual dinner of the Skagway Chamber of Commerce has been changed from Wednesday to Friday. This is due because of the present inclemency of the weather.

Auditor Berdoo of the White Pass road left on the City of Seattle for Seattle. He will return January 10.

George Mowl has purchased the interest of Capt. F. N. Seiberg in the American Tailors' establishment, and will continue as manager of the business at the same old stand. Trade of the public solicited. Orders given prompt attention. 12 8 1m

E. E. Gilkison is purser of the steamer Tees in lieu of T. Munroe the popular purser, who is taking a vacation which will probably last during two or three trips of the ship between this port and Victoria.

H. G. Dalby, Skagway agent for the Canadian Pacific Navigation company, who was expected to return from Victoria on the Tees did not arrive. It is said he will probably remain in Victoria until after Christmas.
