Prominent Skagway-ans Return Pathfinders Leave for South Today

Miss L. A. Burke and C. C. Runner, of the Fifth Avenue hotel, have returned from Nome, arriving here on the Dolphin Sunday. They are enthusiastic over the outlook at Nome. Mr. Runner is also confident that the Tanana, who's been most of the spring, is one of the most promising sections of the Yukon.

PERSONAL MENTION

George Coffey, a Dawson mining man, arrived on the train last night and will go south on the City of Seattle.

W. D. Lanigan, at one time a Skagway wood dealer but who has been a Dawsonite for several years, arrived on the train last night and will go south.

J. P. Seacro, leather of Stanley Seacro, the Dawson merchant, arrived from the interior last night, and is registered at the Fifth Avenue hotel.

J. T. Hayne, formerly of this city but at the present time connected with the Juneau Dispatch, was a round trip passenger on the Dolphin.

John E. Clark, a Dawson mining man, accompanied by Mrs. Clark, arrived on the train last night. They are at the Fifth Avenue.

Ben Everett, who has been in the city several days, will be a passenger on the City of Seattle today.

FOR RENT

The Winds Can Blow, but Can't Effect This House

I will rent my furnished home on Sixth avenue and give possession immediately to a responsible permanent tenant. There is a large sitting room, two bedrooms, dining room, kitchen, with steel range, hot and city water, bath, toilet and lavatory also. Large woodshed, with coal bins connecting with kitchen. This house was entirely remodeled this spring and made into a comfortable, a home as Skagway affords. The house is furnished entire for housekeeping in a plain but comfortable manner. For further particulars call at my jewelry store.

SKAGWAY WEATHER

For the 24 hours preceding 6 o'clock p. m., October 12, 1903. Highest temperature 4 above. Lowest temperature 28 above.

Dawson Newspaper Sued for Libel

L. C. Dranson, publisher of the Dawson Record, and Nat Lyon, have filed libel suits against the owners of the Dawson Sun, for the publication of a cartoon that appeared in the Sun last month. They ask $10,000 each.

Pack Train Has Elaborate Sign

One of the most elaborate electrical signs so far erected in this city now marks the location of the Pack Train bar at the corner of Broadway and Sixth avenue.

Good Old Whisky

Old Planet and Old Belmont, re-impounded, both 12 years old, at Massot saloon.

Skagway Laundry

For first-class work try Skagway Laundry. Twenty-two years' experience. Telephone 84.

Is your washing satisfactory? Are your clothes torn? If no or yes, try the Skagway Hand Laundry, and you will be satisfied.
