COD FISHING VESSELS ARE COMING NORTH

SEATTLE, April 6.—The cod schooners John A and Azalea sailed last night for the cod banks of the north. Others of the fleet are taking aboard supplies for the summer preparations. The Charles R. Watson leaves during today, the Wawena will leave Monday and the C. A. Thayer, Sophie Christenson and Fanny Dutarid will sail later next week.

ADMIRAL ROGERS SOUTH YESTERDAY

Returning southbound from the Triangle Route, the steamer Admiral Rogers, Capt. Frank Landstrom, reached Juneau at 6 o'clock last evening.

Other than her regular ports of call the ship called at several canneries where freight and passengers were discharged.

The weather was reported as moderate with no high winds, indicating that the strong winds locally of the past few days confined themselves to the Channel country.

Passengers arriving aboard the Rogers were: Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. John Young, Barney Brennan, A. Van Mavern, Dan Martin, E. H. Sherman, Fred Meyer and B. A. Barnett.

Sailing south at 8 o'clock last night the vessel had aboard the following passengers from Juneau:

For Seattle—Evan Jones and Lester D. Henderson.
For Ketchikan—L. S. Ciffin, A. L. Brown, Mrs. H. Shimuzi, Mary Shimuzi, Nell Shimuzi, Cherry Shimuzi, E. J. Forster, W. A. Caswell, and P. A. Wanless.

For Petersburg—Fanny James, C. E. Blason, G. L. Rich, E. Ireland and S. H. Southampton.

For Wrangell—Francis Scott, Jean Rose, Philip Kelly, H. D. Campbell, Pete Sandall and G. D. Grant.

NOTICE OF SAILING
From Seattle the Motor Ship "OREGON" will sail for Juneau April 15. For freight and passenger rates call Agent Fommur, Telephone 114. Independent Steamship Company. —adv.

NOTICE
Until further notice the Sanitary Grocery will be open evenings until 10 o'clock. —adv.
