

A NAVAL AFFAIR

MIAMI, Fla., Aug. 26.—(P)—Police desk sergeant didn't believe it when a woman reported an automobile had collided with a submarine here.

Policeman D. D. Carver investigated. He reported a car had jumped a retaining wall and crashed into a World War I submarine moored in the Miami river.

Koreans Parade in Approval of Freedom

SEOUL, KOREA—(Soundphoto)—Old Glory peeps into picture at left as 50,000 Koreans parade in communist-led demonstration in approval of the trusteeship arrangement under which the new republic is taking its first steps. The demonstration, approved by U.S. authorities, was in direct contradiction of Moscow charges of American fostering of "reactionary" protest against the trusteeship.

TUG BOATS RETURN FROM RESCUE MISSION

The tug boats Genevieve and Bozo returned to Snake River early Saturday morning having rescued the TP 225 and barge which were on the beach at Cape Rodney.

The Army tug had caught its tow line in the propeller, rendering it helpless.

The rescue was made before the storm broke and the Army equipment was taken to Teller before Captain Anderson and the Lomen Commercial Company boats returned here.

REINDEER SERVICE LOANS SIGFRIED 500 REINDEER

Jens Forshaug has just returned from Golovin where he completed the transfer of 500 deer from the Reindeer Service to Sigfried, a veteran reindeer herder.

He states that with good care this veteran herder should be able to double the herd in another year or so.

"No, Mr. Abercrombie. That isn't what we mean when we invite you to relax on a Clipper"

Clipper flying time, all the way from Nome to Seattle, is 'way less than a day. So Mr. "A" won't need his nightie. But he can relax in the adjustable lounge seats of the Douglas-built DC-3. And a stewardess will help make him comfortable . . . see that he has good food aloft as part of the fare. Pan American will be glad to help you plan a trip to anywhere. Just inquire at the address below.
