

Cassie Chadwick Dead

Columbus, Oct. 11—Cassie Chadwick has had a priest administer the last rites, and may die at any moment. Her heart is barely fluttering now.

Columbus, Oct. 11—Cassie Chadwick is very near death. She is delirious and raves continually of financial matters. She has only a few hours to live.

Columbus, Oct. 12—Cassie Chadwick is dead, having passed away at the penitentiary early this morning. Just before her death she smiled for the first time since her incarceration, saying she was glad it was all over. She refused to make any statement concerning the report that Andrew Carnegie was her father.

Seattle, Oct. 12—Dr. Ford has been appointed president of the new health board.

Tacoma, Oct. 12—Chester Thorne, the millionaire banker and his associates, have purchased the Alaska Coast Steamship Co. They have subscribed nothing to any of the other Reynolds enterprises.

Albuquerque, Oct. 11—Governor Curry who is very intimate with President Roosevelt, announces that the president will accept another nomination, provided it is an unanimous one.

Tacoma, Oct. 12—The chamber of commerce announces that it will not purchase any stock in the Alaska Home Railway, as they consider they have done sufficient by working up a transfer of the options on the Alaska Coast Co.

Winnipeg, Oct. 12—Explorer Osborn, of the San Francisco Times, who just returned from Labrador, brings on account of cannibalism, wholesale murder and awful privation at St. James bay. All of the food of the inhabitants was exhausted and on account of the particularly severe winter the game was driven from the country. White men killed their women and ate them and the natives murdered whole families to furnish food.

Seattle, Oct. 12—The board of health has been removed by the mayor and Seattle now has no such acting body. A mass meeting will probably be called by the citizens to denounce the peevish action of the mayor.

New York, Oct. 14—The supreme court has issued an order requiring Senator Platt to file an answer within ten days to the divorce suit of Mae Woods, or he will be adjudged a bigamist.

Victoria, Oct. 14—Owing to the short catch of sealskins this season the prices have advanced 15 per cent.

Vancouver, Wash., Oct. 14—Robert Williams, son of Congressman Williams, of Mississippi, was yesterday acquitted of the charge of passing a worthless check. He was defended in the case by Congressman Cushman. Williams is a remittance man and expecting funds would be at his disposal. drew a check and cashed it here.

Chicago, Oct. 14—Wheat opened on the board of trade this morning at $1.10 per bushel, as the result of an attempt being made by Ogden Armour and James Patten to corner the market.

San Francisco, Oct. 14—A wireless message has been received from the Australian steamer Mariposa which was four days overdue, stating she is helpless one hundred miles out from the coast, having run out of oil. Help has been dispatched to the vessel.

San Francisco, Oct. 14—Harriman wires to reduce the force of employees in every department. He says the money market is so stringent that these changes will be necessary. Thousands will be effected by the order. It is generally believed that this is a move on Harriman's part to discredit Roosevelt and his policies.

Detroit, Oct. 14—Chicago won the game Saturday from the Detroit team, ending the series and giving Chicago the championship of the world. The batteries for Chicago were Brown and Kling, for Detroit Mullin and Schmitz.

Seattle, Oct. 14—The steamer Portland arrived this morning from Valdez. She was unable to land at Katalla owing to the fierce storm which was raging. Fifty passengers who came out to board the Portland in a small boat were nearly drowned getting aboard.

Los Angeles, Oct. 14—The jury in the Sante Fe cases returned a verdict last night of guilty of rebating. It is expected that the maximum fine, which will exceed a million dollars, will be made against the company.

Los Angeles, Oct. 14—Poisoned candy and a bomb has been mailed to Mrs. William Pearce by some unknown party, and an effort made to throw suspicion on Helen Mathewson, who would be the heiress in the case of Mrs. Pearce's death. A negro named Barr Harris, who was recently discharged by Miss Mathewson, is suspected of having sent the poison.

Helena, Oct. 14—The Bell Telephone Co. has started suit against the telegraphers union for $75,000 damages, claimed to have been sustained as a result of the recent boycott.

Seattle, Oct. 14—The Seattle creditors of Reynolds, representing $75,000 debts, had a meeting last night and appointed a committee which is to investigate the assets. Reynolds was present at the meeting and said if they would allow him time he could easily meet all indebtedness. The creditors showed no disposition to crowd, and it is now settled that no receiver will be applied for.

Newark, Oct. 14—Jerome Godley has been appointed receiver of the Council Ivy & Solomon railroad on petition of Philip Van Wyck. The object of applying for a receiver was to prevent the sale of the road on a judgment which has been secured against it. The receiver has petitioned for a permission to issue receivers certificates for $50,000 to pay the judgment.

Boston, Oct. 14—Considerable excitement has been caused in this section by the news of the Alaska Home Railway trouble at Valdez, as there are nearly 1700 stockholders of the Reynolds-Alaska Development Co. in this state. Dr. Keistler, vice-president of the company, says the Guggenheim interests are responsible for the trouble as they prevented the sale of Alaska Home stock in Seattle and Tacoma. He says the Reynolds-Alaska Company will stand behind the railway and see that all debts are met.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14—Al. Kaufman knocked out Dave Barry last night in the third round of a fight, which was all one sided. Barry was entirely outclassed.

Vienna, Oct. 14—Francis Joseph is still in a very critical condition, it being thought that he would not survive the day. He is suffering from inflammation of the liver.

Tacoma, Oct. 14—During the trial of William Sloane for the shooting of Charles Mallory, who was his wife's paramour, Judge Clifford made some remarks to Sloane complimenting him highly on following out the unwritten law and punishing Mallory.

Yokohama, Oct. 14—The Japanese government has issued orders that not to exceed 35 Japanese per month will be allowed to immigrate to Hawaii.

Seattle, Oct. 14—Michael White has started suit against the Reynolds-Alaska Development Co. for $12,180, alleging that during his absence from Seward, the Development Co. purchased lumber at his yards from the watchman, paying much less than cost for the same.

Gloversville, Ky., Oct. 15—The home of Frank Glover burned to the ground last night, cremating five young girls, daughters of Glover, and the father, who was caught while attempting to rescue the girls.

Seattle, Oct. 14—The Alaska Coast Co. has canceled the charter of the steamer Santa Barbara, which just returned from a trip to Valdez with railroad supplies.

New York, Oct. 15—The telegraphers report that they have plenty of money to continue their strike. They say Small's statement that they were unable to pay their bills was untrue.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 15—Gen. Linovitch has notified his government that the Japanese are preparing for war in Manchuria. They are secreting tons of ammunition in the guise of merchandise on properties purchased from the Chinese near Vladivostok. The general is confident that a few months will see fighting again in Manchuria.

Vienna, Oct. 15—Francis Joseph is much weaker and the authorities are preparing for his death. The movement which will probably be made immediately after his death to dismember Austria and Hungary, will be promptly squelched by the officials.

Chicago, Oct. 15—The executive office of the telegraphers union has been flooded with messages today congratulating the union on the suspension of President Small. The impression is general that he is a traitor to the organization.