ODERN SYSTEM OF LIGHTING INVADES FRENCH LIBRARY

PARIS, Jan. 9. - The National Library has capitulated to the demands of its frequenters and put in a system of electric lighting. No longer will it be necessary to close the reading rooms in winter at three o'clock, when the light of day betins to fade, or to carry one's book close to the dim light that filtered brough the opaque widows of the old building.

The fear of fire from the electric wiring finally was overcome, and henceforth 25 candle power in
