Baby Give Him a Chance

You cannot divide your time between this fascinating little mortal and such irksome and health-destroying tasks as washing without depriving him of the care and attention he needs.

Be fair to the Baby. Delegate the family wash to Jones' Laundry, and devote a fair portion of your time to Baby. Give attention, fuss over him, do the little tasks for him that are such a pleasure to a mother.

After he is asleep in his little crib tonight, sort and bundle up the family wash. In the morning call up 66 on the phone. In a few minutes the washing is out of your house and your mind at ease. In three days it is returned wholesome, pure and clean, and you have had the house and Baby to yourself, and then note how much more fascinating the Baby appears.

Phone 66.

SHORT STORIES ABOUT ALASKA OCCURRENCES

The Thane high school basketball team beat the Juneau high school team at the Douglas natatorium last week by a score of 27 to 17.

Approximately $200 was raised in Douglas at a dinner and dance last week for the Bishop Rowe memorial fund.

The concert and dance at Hyder dedicating the new Pioneer hall there was a success in every way, one of the largest crowds ever assembled in the new mining camp being present.

All Sitka turned out election night to attend a dance and get the election returns at the Alaska Native Brotherhood hall. The committee had arranged a special wire from the cable office and the election returns were flashed on a screen. The Sitka native band furnished excellent music and the evening proved to be an enjoyable one to everybody present.

Louis Weinrich, former well known butcher of Dawson, died recently at Nome.

O. F. Kastner is now located at Whitehorse where he will handle the overland winter mail service.

Q. E. Spivey, for twenty years warehouseman for the N. C. Company at Dawson, died recently at the latter place of blood poisoning, resulting from an abscess of the throat.

Former students at the University of Washington met in Juneau last week and made plans for a reunion dinner to take place there on Thanksgiving day. All of the 30 former university students living on the channel are expected to be in attendance.

The members of the Eagles Lodge at Dawson are already planning for the annual Christmas tree.

Two machine guns are being forwarded to Dawson from Ottawa; two are being sent to Carcross and one trench mortar to Whitehorse. These are war trophies.

B. F. Bradford has recently taken charge of the Hotel Kodiak on Kodiak Island.

Capt. Ed. Williams has beached the Takue to sheet the hull with iron bark. During the winter months the Taku encounters ice in Portland Canal when making the weekly mail trips to Hyder. Last year, strips of iron bark were placed along the water line near the bow, and tin was placed aft. The tin would not stand the wear and tear of the ice, however.

John B. Anderson and T. Gramhall have become the proprietors of the Petersburg Meat Company having purchased the business from Mr. Haarberg.

John Miller, a pioneer resident of the Yukon, died recently at Whitehorse of valvular heart trouble. The deceased went to the interior as a deckhand on one of the river steamers brought to St. Michael in 1898.

D. A. Muirhead has been appointed acting United States consular agent at Whitehorse.

Captain Stephen Aninin, better known to old timers as "Russian Steve" died recently at Kodiak after a lingering illness.

The young ladies of Hope, on Turnagain Arm, the upper end of Cook Inlet, have formed a sewing club for the winter months.

Al Ferrin has the contract for carrying the mail this winter from Mile 29, on the government railroad to Hope and Sunrise.

The Valdez Post of the American Legion has taken a lease on the hall in the Emporium building and will make a headquarters for all members.

Capt. Max Faust, who has held all the ranks in the signal corps from private to captain, and who has been in charge of the Ketchikan cable office since 1919, has been granted a leave of absence, at the expiration of which he will be placed upon the retired list with pay. Capt.

Faust has served in many towns in Alaska while in the signal corps.

W. E. Parrott of Wrangell, harvested 5,000 pounds of spuds on his ranch, the result of having planted 112 pounds of seed spuds. This proves what soft there is near Wrangell.

Jerry Ford, mining man of the Idiarod, with his wife, is now on a trip to Australia. Mr. and Mrs. Ford will return to America and back to Alaska next spring.

Thirty workmen from the Puget Sound navy yard, at Bremerton, are at Kodiak making extensive improvements as to the radio station at that place.

Richard McNally, soundough from the Tanana section and Daniel Thompson, from Seattle, have joined the forces of the signal corps office at Petersburg.

Frank S. Noll, former owner of the Yukon Sawmill at Dawson is now one of the five active members of the big staff of W. R. Grace & Company, steamship agents at New York City.

Joseph A. Clarke, former mayor of Dawson, is now practicing law at Edmonton.

For Christmas

A Handsome Smoking Jacket will be the "handsome thing" to give to him this Christmas—he'll probably not expect it, but will certainly receive it with gratitude. If it's for husband or brother then it will keep him home o' nights.

You're sure to get a good one if you get it here—one that will serve for a long, long time and not early show its age. His size is waiting—waiting and anxious to serve.

"SHOP EARLY" IS THE SLOGAN HERE THIS YEAR.
