ITEMS TELLING OCCURENCES AT ANCHORAGE

ANCHORAGE, Dec. 8.—From the dainty first-year tots in their fairy and butterfly dance to the graceful colonial "Dance of the Tempest," by the high school, the school program for the benefit of the gymnasium was splendidly rendered and enjoyed by the crowd that packed the hall.

Especial mention should be made of little Winfred McDonald, who, with her partner, Edward Bush, led the intricate figures of the grand march without an error.

From the viewpoint of the scholars, who measured their gym equipment by the crowd of the evening, the affair was no less a success. The gross receipts totaled $313, which, with all expenses paid leaves $189 to be used in the purchase of equipment.

Following the program the floor was clear and with music furnished by Kemp's orchestra several hours of dancing were enjoyed.

W. W. Woodward, formerly connected with the Drumheller dredging works north of Anchorage, has returned from the states, where he has been on business for several months.

W. G. Wilt, chief clerk in the mechanical department, has returned from a trip to Spokane, where he accompanied Mrs. Wilt and Dinty. Mr. Wilt will remain in Anchorage indefinitely and later expects to join his family in the states.

W. P. Murphy was in from his ranch at Matanuska to spend Thanksgiving. Mr. Murphy is very warm in his enthusiasm and praise of the splendid farming opportunities of the Matanuska valley, which he terms Alaska's banana belt.

Harvey Bartholf came in from the Mable mine in the Willow creek district to meet his daughter, Miss Sara Mae Devitt. Miss Devitt comes from Billings, Montana, and will make her home in Anchorage this winter, probably going to Willow creek in the spring.

Mrs. John Vachon and three children, of Tolovana, Alaska, were guests of Major E. R. McFarland and daughter while here en route to Boston, Mass., where the children will be placed in school.

Mrs. Vachon was postmaster at Tolovana for ten years, and was owner and proprietor of the road house and trading post at that place which was totally destroyed by fire a few weeks ago. A fire in 1910 resulted in the loss of three small children in the Vachon family. Her husband, John Vachon, came to the north during the Klondike rush and was several years on the Dawson fire department. He died in Fairbanks last winter.

Charles Leroy, old-time citizen of Pittman, is in Anchorage on business.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the Presbyterian manse Saturday evening when Miss Anna Simonson became the bride of James R. Campbell, of Chickaloon. Only a few friends of the young couple were present. The bride is well known in Anchorage, having been engaged at Mrs. Ashton's. The groom is with the Alaskan Engineering commission at Chickaloon. They left for Chickaloon, where they will make their home.

Edward C. Botts has received a permit from Frank A. Boyle, receiver of the land office at Juneau, to prospect for oil on his claims located in the Cold bay district.
