ON WITH THE DANCE

Several million Americans will join with the President and his family in a happy celebration of his fifty-sixth birthday on January 30. At the same time they will give perhaps as much as a million dollars toward the alleviation of suffering and the attack of science on infantile paralysis. The chairman of the national committee for the President's Birthday Ball for the fourth time, estimates that no fewer than five thousand parties will be given throughout the nation.

Alaskans will keep step with others of the nation. Sourdoughs and Cheechakoes in the chief Northland centers will do their part—making merry simultaneously with Americans in Hawaii, Puerto Rico and other insular possessions.

Americans in tail coats, Sunday suits, wind-breakers, pierrot costumes, sweaters and overalls; beardless boys, men in the prime of life, war veterans, bewiskered granddads, the high school basketball team; Fifth Avenue sophisticated and mid-western farmhands alike, will twirl the ladies in a waltz, entrance them with a rumba or the big apple or stomp their way elegantly through a Virginia reel.

American women, dowagers, subdebs, school teachers, the girls from the five and ten cent store where you meet the million dollar princesses, the Junior Leaguers, artists' models, the ladies of the Browning club and the girls from across the railway tracks, they will be "among those present" at the President's Parties. Whatever their costumes whether Chanel's dernier cri or a "take me home for $10.95", they will be in themselves sufficient reason for a celebration.

The President's Birthday Ball this January, as in past years, will be an American gesture, national in scope, altruistic in purpose and gay with the spirit of a young and generous people.

Eiler Hansen Gives Report Xmas Fund

The following is an accounting of the Pioneers' Home Christmas Fund, rendered by Eiler Hansen, superintendent, the letter having been sent to John Lichtenberg, with the request that he hand it to the Nome Nugget, and is herewith published:

On behalf of the Pioneers I thank everyone that contributed to their Christmas Fund. It is a generous and thoughtful act. To nearly all of my 182 men, it is the only cash they have for an entire year.

Anyone that could witness the expressions of sincere gratitude of the recipients of this money would feel that their gift was worth while.

It would be wonderful to contemplate that in time a trust fund could be set up that would insure a perpetual fund for the use of the residents of the Home.

This could easily be accomplished if some of the Alaskans that have become wealthy would make a proviso in their will for this purpose.

Some of the future winners of the ice pool might also become willing contributors to a fund of this nature.

I render herewith an accounting of the money received and distributed this past Christmas:

Collections through W. D.
Gross, Juneau	$500.00
Ketchikan	286.50
Petersburg	105.90
Sitka	118.00

Craig Igloo No. 30	50.00
Anchorage Igloo Aux. No. 4	25.00
The Alaska Weekly fund	342.50
John Lichtenberg, Nome	105.00
Other Contributions	30.60
Total	$1885.00

182 Pioneers received $10.00 each. Held over until next year, $65.00.

Yours respectfully,
Eiler Hansen, Superintendent,

Nome Kennel Club Discusses Plans Winter Sports

NOME KENNEL CLUB TO BEGIN WINTER SPORTS SOON

Directors of the Nome Kennel Club and others interested in winter sports in Nome met Sunday at the Odd Fellows Hall to discuss plans for dog racing, election of a Queen of the Trail, and winter sports in general.

President Boucher appointed a nominating committee for a new board of directors, a committee of audit of the Club's funds, to report at the next meeting to be held next Sunday at 12:30 P.M. at the Odd Fellow's Hall.

Plans were discussed for staging dog races this spring. The subject of electing a Queen of the Trail in Nome and sending her to the Fairbanks Ice Carnival early in March, to compete in the contest for the title of Miss Alaska, was also discussed, the details being postponed until the election of a new board of directors.

Receipt of a beautiful Ski Trophy, from Archie Shiels, head of the Alaska Fishing Industry, was acknowledged, and the subject of holding a Ski Tournament was also discussed. The public will recall witnessing the Trophy and individual trophies in the display window of the Pole; Branch Store shortly after the last boat sailed from Nome last fall.

All in all an extensive program of winter sports appeared likely to result from efforts of winter sports enthusiasts in Nome. Another meeting is to be held next Sunday. All interested parties are invited.
