Fighting Over Railroad is Still Going on China

SHANGHAI, Jan. 31, (AP)—Chinese and Japanese troops fought a series of heavy engagements along the Tientsin-Pukow Railway with the Chinese asserting that they pushed the Japanese invaders back at strategic points. The Japanese are driving northward along Tientsin-Pukow, toward Suchow Junction point with Lunghai Railway connection, are also said to have been driven back to Mingkwang, 38 miles southeast of Pengpu. Pengpu is approximately 95 miles south of Suchow, which will be a focal point. Japanese forces made an advance northward from Nanking, while another column has been attempting to march southward toward Suchow from bases in southern Shantung Province. The Chinese asserted their forces captured a large number of Japanese prisoners near Mingkwang, and also announced success in continuous guerrilla warfare on all fronts.

Japs Ordered Foreigners To Stay Outside

SHANGHAI, Jan. 29, (AP)—Japanese army orders just issued for bade foreigners from entering Kiangwan, Tazang, Luohong areas adjacent to Shanghai, to avoid new "incidents", an Army spokesman said. No new announcement was forthcoming in the Allison-Jap sentinel slapping. Warfare is now centered far to the northward. Sporadic fighting is reported at Hangchow and a major battle is due to start near Suchow, where eight crack Chinese divisions are massed near the Lunghai Railway.

Proposed Truce Air Bombings In Spanish War

BARCELONA, Spain, Jan. 29, (AP)—The Loyalist government proposed air raid armistice to prevent the bombing of civilians and hundreds of deaths, recently caused by the bombing at Valencia, Barcelona, Salamance and Seville by both sides. A Loyalist communique said, behind the lines that the city bombing was "most cruel" and asked for its cessation, and at the same time warned that any further insurgent bombing would result in severe reprisals in kind on the war front. The Loyalists took the initiative in the Teruel Sector and attacked in force at Carinena, near Zaragoza, and claimed gains.

400 Killed In Explosion At Arms Factory

SEJNI, Italy, Jan. 29th, (AP)—From three hundred to four hundred persons are believed killed and injured in a series of explosions which wrecked one of Italy's greatest munitions factories from which rescue crews were able to drag nine bodies. Firemen believe there are many more to be found. The explosion has been blamed officially, to carelessness of workmen who broke a compressed air tube. King Vittorio Emanuel and Queen Elena hurried to the scene, and Premier Mussolini, it is said, will probably take personal charge of the rescue work. Thirty-nine squadrons of firemen rushed from Rome to the scene of carnage. Stocks of wool used in making high explosives are still burning in the cellars, thereby preventing rescue activities. Many persons were injured by flying splinters, glass and tiles, which were hurled from house-tops in nearby towns. Two minor explosions preceded the main blast. Segni, is a town of ten thousand population, thirty miles southeast of Rome, suffered widespread damage, virtually all windows in the town were blown out and shelves in stores collapsed.

Court Upholds Right NLRB To Hold Meetings

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 31, (AP)—The Supreme Court of these United States upheld the right of the NLRB to conduct hearings to determine whether companies who are subject to the Labor Act are engaged in unfair labor practices. Justice Louis Brandeis delivered the opinion in two cases involving the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation and the New Port News Ship Building Company, and announced there was no dissent from his opinion. Justice Cardozo, who is ill of heart disease, didn't participate. Justice Brandeis said the Court is of the opinion that the Federal District Courts are "without power or jurisdiction to enjoin the hearings, because they lack the power to prevent any person engaging in any unfair practice affecting Commerce, which has been vested by Congress in the Board of Circuit Appeals. Congress declared that this power shall be exclusive and shall not affect any other means of adjustment or prevention, that has been or may have been established by agreement, code, law or otherwise."

Schemling Fights So. Africa Man Won a Decision

HAMBURG, Germany, Jan. 31, (AP)—Schmeling, Germany's perennial heavyweight title contender, smashed and battered rugged Ben Foord of South Africa, in the last six rounds in order to take a twelve round decision. Max Schmeling weighed 192.2. Foord weighed 207. The German did everything but floor his rival, and took nine rounds of Foord's courage in the closing rounds when he still withstood the Teuton's knockout bid and drew roars of applause from the crowd of 25,000 fans, which were disappointed at Schmeling's failure to score a knockout. That beautiful friendship between Mussolini and Hitler rests on precarious underpinning. They both want Austria.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Braddock Retires

NEW ORK, Jan. 31, (AP)—Jim Braddock, former world heavyweight champion, and recent winner over Tommy Farr, in his first come back campaign, announced retirement from the ring, in which he said that "in fairness to his wife and children I believe it is time to withdraw." He plans another business venture at Cinderella. Braddock first won his heavyweight crown from Max Baer in 1935.

The brief, formal ceremony over the tribunal proceeded immediately to work: reading opinions, hearing arguments. Marshal Frank Green escorted Justice Reed to his seat and Justice Stone leaned across Justice Cardozo's vacant seat and gripped his hand.

FOR PASSENGERS HERE, IT'S NO FARE because this train on the Peiping-Hankow line in China won't reach its destination. A Japanese bomb weakened this bridge and the heavy locomotive caused the structure to crumple as it rolled on. Both sides have resorted to destruction of bridges in current Sino-Japanese conflict.

BOSTON, Mass., Jan. 29, (AP)—A heavy police guard was thrown around the Japanese vessel Karyo Maru, a sister ship to the vessel which narrowly escaped bombing at Seattle, but officials declined to explain their activities.
